

Campus Religious Groups Schedule Dinners, Talks

Christian House

Married students will hold their potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. today at Christian House. Couples are asked to bring a hot dish and either a salad or dessert, except those participating for the first time. Baby sitters will be provided at the John Davis home, 136 E. 34th Ave.

Sunday evening following the snack supper, Jessie Bork will show pictures of Korea and tell of her experiences in that country. This is part of the feature program, "Rim of Asia."

Carl Hintz Heads New Library Plan

American Library Association has released a national plan for library education. It will be under the direction of the Library Education Division, of which Carl W. Hintz, University librarian, is president.

HINTZ SAID, referring to the plan, that it should result in "identification, clarification, and publication of the objectives of library education, not as static, but as self-repairing goals of a vital, dynamic profession."

In the formulation and implementation of the plan, all agencies will promote library education. Perry D. Morrison, acting librarian, said that "this is crucial because there is a shortage of librarians."

The need for the plan was recommended by the Institute on the Future of Library Education April, 1962, in Cleveland, Ohio. The Institute recommended that the American Library Association assume responsibility for developing a sound and flexible plan.

AMONG THE objectives of a national plan, Hintz has listed recognition of the role of education for librarianship, extension of knowledge about this field through research and publication, and implementation of guidelines at all levels of education for librarianship, pre-service and in-service.

The H. W. Wilson Foundation, Inc., has provided a $15,000 grant over a period of two fiscal years to support preliminary work on the plan.

Site Named for Winter Carnival

Bachelor Butte near Bend will be the site of activities of the Intercollegiate Winter Carnival Feb. 22-24.

Representatives from 31 western colleges will meet there for a weekend of pleasure and competition.

The competition will be between princesses for queen and ski teams for a cup.

Ron Bernstein, winter carnival chairman, said a $7 "packet" ticket to be on sale soon will cover all entertainment and recreation that the ticket holder can possibly do during the three days. It will include a talent show and crowning of the queen Friday evening, a performance by the "Four Freshmen" Saturday, three days of pleasure skiing, ice skating, and other recreation, and admission to watch the ski competition.

The only things the ticket will not cover are transportation and lodging. Bernstein said transportation would be provided if there was enough demand for it. He said lodging would be motel for $5 and sleeping bags for $3.

Speech Prof Adds Chapter to Book

Dr. Bower Aly, professor of teaching. The chapter originally appeared in the August, 1960 issue of "The American Association of University Professors Bulletin," from which it is reprinted.

The book, published by McGraw-Hill Book Co., is edited by Dr. Herman A. Estrin of the Newark College of Engineering.

Dr. Aly's contribution is in the nature of a panel discussion on graduate training for college
