Save Used Gum Wrappers

Just the other day an eccentric old man was going from door to door offering to pay a million dollars to anyone who could give him a pound of gum wrappers on the spot. At the five-hundredth house a ten-year-old girl did actually give him a pound of gum wrappers. When he saw the pound of gum wrappers, the old man looked confused because he had been taken off guard. Recovering quickly, however, he cried, "April fool!" and ran off down the block.

WORK IN EUROPE

MORE TRAVEL GRANTS

Apr. 19, 1963—The American Student Information Service, the only authorized placement service for American students seeking summer jobs in Europe, has increased from 1500 to 2000 the number of travel grants it will award students applying for positions in Europe.

Job openings now available in Europe include positions at factories, resorts, hospitals, farms, summer camps and in offices. Applications are received until May 31.

Interested students may write (naming your school) to Dept. H. ASIS, 22 Ave. de la Liberte, Luxembourg City, Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, for a 20-page prospectus, a complete job selection and application. Send $1 for the prospectus, handling and an airmail reply.

The first 5000 inquiries receive a $1 premium for the new student travel book, Earn, Learn and Travel in Europe.
