Lu Bain Shines In Scrimmage

Sparkling running by veteran halfback Lu Bain was the outstanding point in the final scrimmage session Saturday, as the Oregon Ducks ended three weeks of spring practice. As has been the case with almost all the practice sessions and scrimmages this spring, the rain fell.

The sloppy footing of the upper practice field and changing defenses combined to halt most of the offensive thrusts. Neither could slow up the former Vancouver High School athlete during the hour-and-a-half session, though.

As he has done in the previous two scrimmages, Bain ran, passed, and received in brilliant fashion. It was Bain's nifty and powerful running which enabled the first unit to score the only two touchdowns of the afternoon.

The touchdowns came on a 15-yard pass from quarterback Doug Post to end Rich Schwab and a 20-yard option sprint by fullback Tim Casey after Bain and halfback Larry Hill had put the first unit in scoring territory with their determined ground efforts.

Alumni Point for First Spring Win

Oregon's football alumni will be gunning for its first victory since 1960 when it tangles with Coach Len Casanova's Webfoot varsity Saturday in the fourth annual University of Oregon spring grid clash at Hayward field.

George Shaw will serve as coach for the Duck alumni for a second straight year. A bevy of players who performed for the Ducks is expected to answer the alumni call.

Among the early consenters for alum duty are the following:

Tickets for the Eugene appearance of the 1963 World Series of pro tennis are still on sale at four Eugene locations.

Reserved seat tickets for the appearance, priced at $3 and $2, will be available at Mac Court, Warren's Hardware, Wicklund's Sporting Goods, and Mattox Pipe Shop.

sented with awards Saturday night at the All-Campus Sing at MacArthur Court.

Barnett was presented the Emerald Athletic Award, sponsored jointly by the Oregon Daily Emerald and the Oregon athletic department. It is awarded to an Oregon student on the basis of achievement in athletics, scholarship and citizenship. The voting this year was the closest since the first year the award was presented.

There were fifteen nominations for the award. Basis for nomination is that the athlete has accumulative grade point average of 2.5 or more.

Twice All-American

Barnett has compiled a distinguished collegiate career in all fields while at Oregon. He was an All-Coast selection for three years of varsity football and an All-American choice his junior and senior years. He was a participant in the East-West Shrine Football Game and the Hula Bowl. Barnett will also compete this summer in the Coaches' All-American Game at Buffalo, N.Y. Barnett also earned a letter in wrestling in his junior year.

DeSylvia received the Doyle Higdon Trophy, which is presented to the outstanding sophomore on the basis of achievement in athletics, scholarship and citizenship.

The Higdon Trophy is named in memory of a former Oregon football guard and javelin star, who was killed during the summer between his sophomore and junior years.

Ducks Lose Second

PULLMAN, WASH.—Oregon's baseball nine dropped its second game in a row to Washington State Saturday, 8-5, and got ousted from the number one spot in the Northern Division as well.

Going into Friday's contest with the Cougars, the Oregonians were tied for first with Oregon State, but losing the two-game series pushed the Ducks a full game behind OSU. Washington State holds down third place, 2½ games behind the Beavers.

Oregon continues its road trip today, as it travels to Moscow to clash with the University of Idaho. In the only previous meeting between the two schools, hosting Oregon edged past the Vandals, 3-2.

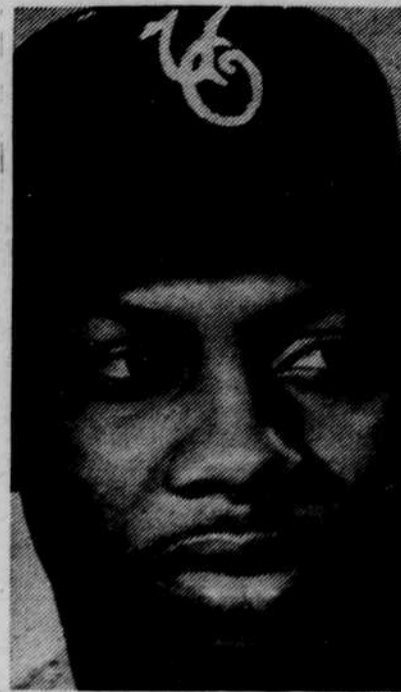

With its two wins over the Ducks last weekend, Washington State avenged the two losses dealt it by Oregon late in April, and gave the Webfoots a 20-4 record for the season. The visitors only previous losses were to Portland State.

Three homers were hit during Saturday's contest—two by the Cougars. The third was 385-foot effort by leftfielder H. D. Murphy who leads the Oregon team in hitting.

WSU pitchers Bob Stephens and Steve Bell held the Webfoots to four hits—singles by Jeff Allen and Arba Ager, a double by Cal Dean and Murphy's four-bagger.

The Cougars jumped to a 3-0 lead after three innings, but Oregon closed the gap in the fourth on Murphy's blast which also scored Dean.

But, the Cougars came back with a run in the bottom of the fourth, then saw the margin reduced to one run again, when Dean doubled and scored on a two base error.

Jansen walked two to lead off the seventh, setting the stage for a three-run homer by shortstop Craig Heimbigner. The Cougars added a run in the eighth on a solo home run by Tom Seidel, which cleared the 385-foot mark.

The Ducks, with the help of a pair of WSU errors, came back with two runs in the ninth, but the rally fell three runs short. Sandy Nosler walked, two errors brought him in, and Jeff Allen singled in the final run.
