No Hearing For Jeannace

WASHINGTON (AP) — Convicted murderer Jeannace June Freeman, 21, under death sentence in Oregon, was refused a hearing by the Supreme Court Monday.

She was convicted of throwing a 6-year-old boy to his death in Crooked River Canyon in central Oregon. The boy's 4-year-old sister was also killed.

An attorney for Miss Freeman, Philip A. Levin, said in Portland that it was not known what course would be taken now.

If no further appeals are made, presumably she would be taken to circuit court at Madras, where she was convicted, to hear the setting of her execution date. Miss Freeman would be the first woman executed in Oregon.

Gov. Mark Hatfield has said previously that he would not overturn executive procedure by granting executive clemency.

Miss Freeman's conviction was upheld by the Oregon Supreme Court which said it was the state's theory that the children were killed, in 1961, because they were bothersome to the lesbian relationship of the two women.

In her appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court, Miss Freeman said she had not been arraigned promptly before a magistrate after her arrest; statements obtained from her during illegal detention were used in evidence; and she was deprived of aid of a lawyer when the statements were obtained.

Weather Causes Concern

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — Cloudiness at Cape Canaveral has raised the possibility that today's scheduled 22-orbit flight by astronaut Gordon Cooper may be postponed. If the shot is postponed it would be at least 24 hours before it could be rescheduled. All other aspects of the flight are described as "completely go." Weather in recovery areas is reported in generally good condition. Cooper spent the day at hanger "S" on the cape checking his survival kit.

Dominicans Move Back

SANTO DOMINGO, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC (UPI)—Reports from Santo Domingo say Dominican troops, armor and war planes are being pulled back from the Haitian border. Defense ministry sources have attributed the withdrawal to strong diplomatic pressure from abroad and opposition at home. But there is suspicion it might be a preliminary move to opening the way for a so-called "liberation force" to move against Haiti.

Extradition Is Probable

WASHINGTON (AP)—Marcos Perez Jimenez, former Venezuelan dictator, was denied today a Supreme Court review of a decision that he may be extradited from Florida to Venezuela where he is charged with embezzlement. The decision was given by the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans, La., during prolonged litigation over extradition begun by Venezuela in August 1959.

Perez Jimenez ruled Venezuela for almost 10 years before he was overthrown in 1958. President Romulo Betencourt of Venezuela wants to try the former general on charges of embezzling several million dollars of government funds—a crime included in an extradition treaty between the United States and Venezuela.

The onetime dictator has been in jail in Miami, Fla., since December 1962 as a result of revocation of his release on $100,000 bail. Chief Justice Earl Warren on April 10, 1963, refused to permit release of Perez Jimenez on bail.

Accused Bombers Freed

TCHULA, MISS. (UPI)—Charges against four Mississippi Negro civil rights leaders accused of firebombing a Negro's home to create racial tension have been dropped. Arson charges were dropped on the grounds that there was insufficient evidence to prosecute the four. But one of the four was convicted on a charge of impeding officers in their investigation of the fire bombing.

Federals Surround Birmingham

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has moved about 3,000 infantrymen, paratroopers, military policemen and other forces into Alabama yesterday.

President Kennedy, the Pentagon announced, has sent three thousand army troops to Maxwell Air Force base about 80 miles southeast of Birmingham, and to Fort McClellan, about 50 miles east of Birmingham.

Two senior Army officers are in Birmingham making preparations for any military action that might be needed.

Pres. Kennedy has given his assurance, however, that the soldiers will not be moved into Birmingham as long as law and order are maintained.

But a state-federal court fight may be shaping up over the racial crisis.

President Kennedy appealed to Alabama Governor George Wallace for "constructive cooperation" in the issue so that federal troops will not have to be used to maintain law and order.

Pres. Kennedy's statement, in effect, rejected Wallace's contention that the Chief Executive has no authority to dispatch federal troops to Alabama.

Wallace has indicated he may go to court in a last-ditch fight to keep federal troops out of Birmingham. Referring to the three-thousand riot-trained combat-equipped troops already moved into Alabama during the night, Wallace said, "We have plans to get them out. They are here illegally."

In replying to Wallace's contention, Pres. Kennedy said, "I would be derelict in my duty if I did not take the preliminary steps announced last night."

Pres. Kennedy's statement came in a telegram sent as an answer to Wallace. Wallace promptly sent the president a telegram today disputing the President's insistence he has authority to act.

But a White House spokesman said the second telegram would not be answered. He said, "We consider our wire a reply to both (Wallace) telegrams."

Wallace accused President Kennedy of threatening to send soldiers to Birmingham to, in his words, "Enforce a worthless agreement made by a so-called bi-racial committee" which he says has no legal status.

The agreement to gradually desegregate department stores in downtown Birmingham was announced last Friday by integration leader Dr. Martin Luther King Junior.

Justice department officials say the movement of the riot-control forces within easy reach of the city has, as it was put, "had a calming effect upon the Negro community."

It's the rich-flavor leaf that does it! Among L&M's choice tobaccos there's more longer-aged, extra-cured leaf than even in some unfiltered cigarettes. And L&M's filter is the modern filter—all white, inside and outside—so only pure white touches your lips. L&M's the filter cigarette for people who really like to smoke.
