

Discipline Code Lists Violations, Sanctions

I. THE CODE

A. PREAMBLE

1. The University is dedicated not only to learning and the advancement of knowledge but also to the development of ethically sensitive and responsible persons. It is believed that these goals can best be achieved through a sound educational program and policies of student conduct that encourage independence and maturity.

2. The University distinguishes its responsibility for student conduct from the control functions of the wider community. When a student has been apprehended for the violation of a law of the community, the state, or the Nation, the University will not request or agree to special consideration for the student because of his status as a student. The University will cooperate fully, however, with the courts in any program for the rehabilitation of the student. Ordinarily, the University will not impose further sanctions after law enforcement agencies or the courts have disposed of a case.

3. The University may apply sanctions or take other appropriate action when student conduct directly and significantly interferes with the University's (a) primary educational responsibility of ensuring the opportunity of all members of the University community to attain their educational objectives, and (b) subsidiary responsibilities of protecting the health and safety of students, maintaining and protecting property, keeping records, providing living accommodations and other services, and sponsoring a wide range of non-classroom activities such as lectures, concerts, athletic events, and social functions.

4. Procedural fairness is basic to the proper enforcement of all University rules. In particular, no disciplinary sanction as serious as expulsion, suspension, disciplinary probation or entry of an adverse notation on any permanent record available to persons outside the University shall be imposed unless the student has been notified in writing of the charges against him and has had an opportunity (a) to appear with counsel, if he so desires, before an appropriate committee, court, or official; (b) to know the evidence against him and to present evidence in his own behalf, and (c) to appeal the initial decision to a higher authority.

5. Students shall have an opportunity to participate fully in the formulation of all policies and rules pertaining to student conduct and in the enforcement of all such rules.

6. Rules and sanctions affecting the conduct of men and women shall be based on general principles of equity, including like penalties for like violations.

B. VIOLATIONS

1. No sanction or other disciplinary action shall be imposed on a student by or in the name of the University except in accordance with this Code.

2. Expulsion or suspension from the University or any other lesser sanction may result from the commission of any of the following offenses:

- Academic cheating and plagiarism
- Furnishing false information to the University with intent to deceive
- Forgery, alteration, or misuse of University documents, records, or identification cards

d) Physical abuse of another person in the University community

e) Malicious destruction, damage, misuse of University property, including library materials, or of private property on the campus

f) Theft

g) Vandalism or kidnapping committed on other campuses

h) Participating in hazing

i) Lewd or indecent conduct

j) Two or more (or the repetition of) offenses listed in paragraph 3 below.

3. Probation or any lesser sanction may result from the commission of any of the following offenses:

a) Possession or consumption or furnishing of alcoholic beverages on University owned or controlled property, in University related housing for single students, or at University sponsored or supervised functions

b) Disorderly conduct

c) Raiding of living units

d) Violation of closing hour restrictions

e) Violation of visiting hour rules

f) Violation of any University rule approved by the Faculty-Student Conduct Committee for the infraction of which sanctions may be imposed under this Code.

4. All rules which are approved by the Faculty-Student Conduct Committee pursuant to paragraph 3(f) shall be in writing and published and distributed or posted in such a manner as to furnish adequate notice of their contents to students affected by such rules. Failure to comply with this requirement shall be a complete defense by any student to any charge of violation of a rule of which he has no actual knowledge.

C. SANCTIONS

1. Sanctions which may be imposed for the commission of University offenses shall include the following:

a) Permanent expulsion from the University

b) Suspension from the University for a definite or indefinite period of time

c) Probation with or without loss of designated privileges for a definite period of time. The infraction of any University rule or violation of probation terms during the period of probation may be grounds for suspension or expulsion from the University. The parents of any student under 21 years of age placed on probation shall be so notified.

d) Loss of privileges:

1—"Campusing" (restriction) to living quarters or library for purposes of study for a designated time

2—Denial of use of an automobile for a designated time

3—Removal from dormitory or other University housing

4—Loss of such other privileges as may be consistent with the offense committed and the rehabilitation of the student

e) Admonition and Warning

f) Such other sanctions as may be approved by the Faculty-Student Conduct Committee

2. The sanctions of expulsion or suspension shall not be imposed except upon proper determination by the Student Court or the Faculty-Student Conduct Committee.

3. The Preamble, Violations, and Sanctions shall be printed and made readily available to all students. The campus newspaper shall be requested by the Faculty-Student Conduct Committee to publish the same at the beginning of each school year.

D. THE FACULTY-STUDENT CONDUCT COMMITTEE

1. The Faculty-Student Conduct Committee, by faculty legislation and by delegation of the President of the University, is designated as the agency within the University which has primary responsibility for the student-conduct program. The Committee shall be responsible to the faculty and the President of the University for recommending policies relating to student conduct, for formulating or approving rules and enforcement procedures within the framework of existing policies, for disposing of such individual cases as may properly come before it, and for recommending to the President of the University changes in the administration of any aspect of the student-conduct program.

2. All regulations or rules relating to student conduct that are established by any University official, committee or student group and for which sanctions may be imposed in the name of the University must be submitted to the Committee for approval. Such written regulations or rules shall be effective fifteen days after filing with the Secretary of the Committee unless disapproved, within this period, by the Committee. Fraternity, sorority or Co-op "housekeeping" rules adopted by members for the internal management of the living unit are not considered University rules for the purpose of this Code.

3. The Committee shall consist of four faculty members and three student members, each appointed by the President of the University. Each student member shall serve for a period of one year with one member retiring at the end of each academic term (Fall, Winter, Spring). Members of the Committee may be reappointed. The President may appoint temporary members of the Committee to serve during a summer session or such other times as is necessary to assure full membership of the Committee.

4. The President of the University shall designate an Associate Dean of Students who shall serve as Secretary of the Committee and assist the Committee in the discharge of its responsibilities. He shall coordinate the activities of all officials, committees, student groups, and judicial tribunals responsible for student conduct.

5. The Committee may delegate jurisdiction to handle infractions of University rules to the Student Court and such other judicial tribunals as may be established. With the consent of the President of the University, the Committee may also delegate such jurisdiction to appropriate University officials. In all instances such jurisdiction shall be defined by the Committee, ordinarily in terms of specified offenses, maximum sanctions, or designated living units. The Committee may at its

As I was brilliantly hunkering on top of a coffee and ashtray cluttered SU table the other evening, I spied two freshmen co-eds each skipping along with a D.Q. clutched in her hand. As they stopped and gaped at me I grabbed their D.Q.'s and ran. No one should have to go to so much trouble just to get a D.Q. If you have just one thin dime (a thick one will do) stop in at the D.Q. for some delicious ice cream. If you'd like, they'll let you hunker in the street in front of their store.
