

Arts Committee Schedules Films, Exhibits, Workshops

"Renaissance Architecture" will be the subject of the second film in this year's art film lecture series, sponsored by the SU Arts committee.

Films this term will deal with the Renaissance, more specifically, with artists such as El Greco and Simons Martini. Winter term will concentrate on the 18th and 19th centuries and spring term, tentatively, with architecture.

Courses, Films Correlated

Jeri Lynn Coney of the SU Arts committee is organizing this series partly in conjunction with art history courses offered in the School of Architecture and Allied Arts. She explained that the program will at least partially parallel the subject matter of those courses.

Miss Coney said that she hopes to be able to have an interested professor lead a discussion after each film showing.

Other plans of the arts committee include a silk screen workshop, scheduled from 8 to 10 p.m. on Nov. 21. Participants will receive instruction in operating the silk screen equipment.

Miss Coney said that she hopes to have more exhibits of student art this year in preference to work by local artists not connected with the University. She hopes to present several exhibits of student MSA degree projects from the area of Allied Arts.

The committee is hoping to have displays of student art exhibited in the coffee shop in the basement of the SU. Miss Coney said that she will display as much work as students submit.

Hours Announced For Art Museum

Art lovers will have to adjust their moments of appreciation this term, because the art museum has announced a new schedule of hours.

The museum will be open Wednesday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m., and on Tuesday and Thursday from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. The museum is closed Monday.

The Rental Sales Gallery, sponsored by the Friends of the Museum, and operated by the Eugene Junior Service League, is now open Tuesday and Thursday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.
