

Phi Delts Lead In IM Wrestling

Phi Delta Theta holds a slim two-point edge over defending champion Alpha Tau Omega, as the semi-finals of IM wrestling get under way today.

The Phi Delts held a 49 - 47 edge over ATO. Other leaders in the 46-team race are Sigma Chi with 33 points; Phi Gamma Delta, 28; Sigma Nu, 27; and Douglass, 23.

Eighteen matches are slated for this afternoon. Art Skipper, of Delta Upsilon, the 1962 defending champion in the 177-pound class, will meet Ad Talbot of Philadelphia House at 5 p.m. Making a bid at regaining the 167-pound crown, which he earned in 1960, is Larry Payne, Beta Theta Pi, who will be wrestling against Johnny Johnson of Campbell Club.

The IM consolation matches are scheduled for Wednesday between all wrestlers who have lost to the finalists. The finals will be held next week in McArthur Court.

Curt Scott of Omega, seeded number one at 130 pounds, has scored the quickest fall of the tourney thus far with a 20-second pin.

Wrestling Coach Mike Reuter, tournament manager, believes the best organized team may win the championships through the consolation matches. Many wrestlers forfeit during the consolation rounds, believing they have already been eliminated from the tournament.

Reuter urges all Intramural managers to watch the Emerald wrestling schedule. Third and fourth places in each weight are determined by the consolation brackets and are scored four and two points with fall points and advancement points.

Freshman Swimmers Record Third Victory

Oregon's frosh swimmers recorded their third victory in as many outings, Friday, when they easily defeated Reedsport High School, 70-21 at Leighton Pool.

This was the closest that any team has come to the Frosh this season.

Four records were set in the meet. Charlie Staples, 1963 Australian national champion, swam the 50-yard freestyle in 22.2 seconds to set a new Frosh mark and tie the varsity and conference records. However, Staples can't hold the varsity or conference record unless he breaks it in varsity competition.

Monty Holding, in taking a close second to Reedsport's Don Mackenzie, set a new Frosh time in the 400-yard freestyle. The race was a tough one to lose, because Holding had been out-swimming his opponent in the middle and losing on his turns. Holding was defeated by a slim tenth of a second.

Smith Breaks Record

The 100-yard breaststroke mark was broken for the second time in as many meets, this time by Mason Smith. Smith swam the race in a time of 1:07.3, more than a second better than Bob Brockhouse's clocking three weeks earlier.

The depth of the Frosh team showed up again in the 200-yard medley relay, as the hosts swam two teams, both bettering the old record of 1:49.3. The exhibition team of Brockhouse, Smith, Gram Colton and Don Smith swam the distance in 1:45.4, while the "A" relay of Charles Leland, Jim Stauffer and Staples turned in a 1:48.3 time. The later team claims the record, however, because it was the official Oregon entry in the event.

Frosh Lose Only Two

Harris Gives Cas Vote of Confidence

A vote of confidence went to Len Casanova for the job of preparation done by his staff and him for the Washington game at Monday's Oregon Club meeting.

Leo Harris said "This was the best preparation for a game we've had in my 17 years at Oregon—including our Rose Bowl game with Ohio State."

Cas, himself, commended coach John Robinson for his thorough job of scouting the Huskies. He said Robinson had looked at films of Washington games from three or four years ago, and knew every defensive maneuver of the Huskies.

As for last Saturday's game, Casanova said, "There was a tremendous burden on our four deep men. When we—and Washington—made a mistake it was a bad one." Cas said this was probably the reason for the high score in the contest.

Berry On One Leg

Cas also praised Bob Berry for his courage in playing three quarters of the game on practically one leg. Berry's knee was injured in the first quarter.

"Berry could have run," Cas said, "and made good yardage. But, we limited him to handing the ball off and throwing. When we thought of putting Renfro in to throw or run, he got hurt."

Casanova said Mark Richards and Ray Johnson did a fine job on defense for the Ducks.

"We were disappointed," Casanova said, "but the kids will bounce back."

Phil McHugh, although not scouting last week, gave a report on this week's Webfoot opponent, San Jose State.

McHugh said, "Last year they were predictable in their offensive efforts. This year they are more difficult to defend and play, because they have a lot of motion in their offense."

Spartans Score Quickly

McHugh said although the Spartans rarely have a sustained drive on offense they will score quickly. San Jose's defense is such, though, that opposing teams will also score quickly—and often.

"They will challenge us," McHugh said. "They aren't great, but they're dangerous."

John Simmons, San Jose State athletic news bureau director said, "We like to think of ourselves as the sleeping giant of West coast football."

Simmons pointed out that in their game with California, which the Spartans lost, 34-13, San Jose ran 83 plays to Cal's 44. The Spartans also out-gained the Golden Bears. But, Cal quarterback Craig Morton threw five long passes that day for touchdowns to beat the Spartans.

UO Athletic Cards Stolen In Portland

The University Athletic Department reports that 42 women's athletic cards were stolen Saturday at the Washington game.

The number of cards are known by the department. These cards will not be honored by the department. Anyone attempting to use them at the remaining Oregon home games will have his or her name taken and presented at the athletic department.
