

Churches Plan Discussions

Baptists

"Theology and Revelation" is the topic of the service at First Baptist Church at 9:45 a.m. Sunday. A reception for foreign students will be held at 4 p.m. There will be no college hour this Sunday.

Christian House

The November potluck dinner for married students will be at the Christian House at 6:30 p.m. Friday. Each couple should bring a hot dish, salad or dessert. Frances Van Voorhis of the Home Economics Department, will speak on family problems facing young married couples. Officers will be elected at this meeting. Baby sitters will be provided.

Don David will show pictures of his summer study tour of Africa and India sponsored by the United Campus Christian Fellowship. This program will follow the snack supper at 5 p.m.

The Sunday Bible study will meet at 9 a.m.; the graduate seminar, at 9 p.m., Tuesday; and morning chapel at 7:30 a.m. Wednesday.

Gamma Deltans

The Gamma Deltans will meet at Grace Lutheran Church at 5:15 p.m. Sunday for transportation to Dr. Maier's home.

Canterbury Association

Prof. Alfred Bloom will speak on "Nature of Zen and the Western Man" at a supper at the Episcopal Campus Center, 868 East 13th, at 5:30 p.m. Sunday.

Newman Club

William Shanahan will speak on "The Church and Freedom: Enemies or Allies?" at Newman Student Center, 749 E. 15th, at 7 p.m. Sunday. He will discuss the role of the church in establishing the human community.

Baha'i

"The Return of the Christ" will be the discussion by a panel at Friendly House, 2445 Kincaid St., at 4 p.m. Sunday. Aron Olson, a merchant from Salem, will be a guest speaker.

University To Host Geography Council

The University will host the Oregon Geography Council's annual meeting Saturday. About 50 persons are expected to attend the one-day session.

A special presentation on "Some Geographical Aspects of Tropical Land Use" will be given by Gene E. Martin, associate professor of geography from the University and Clarke Brooke of Portland State College.

Edward T. Price, Jr., head of the University department of geography, is coordinating local arrangements for the meeting.

A special class in Baha'i Holy Writings will be held at 8 p.m. tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Labib, 1724 Moss St. For further information or transportation, call 344-2997 or 344-4666. The public is invited.

Congregational-Presbyterian

Charles P. Schleicher, professor of political science at the University, will speak to the combined student groups at 5 p.m. Sunday at Westminster House, 1414 Kincaid St.

He will discuss "India — Traditionalism versus Modernism." Prof. Schleicher has recently returned from his third trip to India. During his last sabbatical year, he served as United States director of the Fulbright Exchange Program.

Emerald Baptist

Roger Williams Fellowship will meet at 5:45 p.m. Sunday at Emerald Baptist Church. Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

Archer to Speak On Krishna Loves

W. G. Archer, Keeper Emeritus of the Indian section of Victoria and Albert Museum of South Kensington, London, will speak on "The Loves of Krishna" at 8 p.m. Monday in 150 Science.

Two exhibitions—"Persian and Indian Miniatures from the collection of Edwin Binney, 3rd, Portland Art Museum" and "Contemporary Iranina Paintings"—are on display at the Museum of Art in connection with Archer's visit.

Archer, veteran lecturer of Indian art and culture, joined the India civil service in 1931, as superintendent of Census Operations and in various legal capacities.

After retiring from government life, Archer joined the staff of the Victoria and Albert Museum in 1949. Since then he has visited India in 1954 lecturing on Indian painting and in 1960 on a research tour of the subcontinent and Ceylon.

In 1957, Archer wrote "Loves of Krishna in Indian Painting and Poetry" and in 1959, "India and Modern Art."

He was a Sir George Birdwood lecturer on Indian painting, sponsored by the Royal Society of Arts in 1957, and a Cooke Daniels lecturer at the Denver, Colo., Art Museum in 1958.

SU Announces

Bridge Tourney

An open pairs Bridge Tournament, designed for the average University player, will be presented by the Student Union Games Committee at 7 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday in the SU.

A bridge player does not need to be an expert to play in this tournament as it is limited to University students, in that one of the pair must be a student.

Trophies will be awarded to the members of the top two teams. For additional information call Marty Slater, ext. 1856.

University YMCA Slates Discussion

"Teaching and the Transfer of Values" will be the topic of the Faculty Inter-disciplinary Seminar, sponsored by the University YMCA at noon Monday in the SU.

Francis Dart, associate professor of physics, will lead the discussion.

Cosmo Club to Meet

Cosmopolitan Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. today in the Geringer Annex. The program will feature entertainment from South America. Membership cards in the club will be sold. All University students are invited.
