

Oregon Bowlers Divide With All-Stars

By JANET O'DELL

Oregon's varsity bowlers saw their first action of the school year Sunday, when they met Eugene's top bowlers, the Allison All-Stars, in a tight match on the SU lanes.

The All-Stars edged Oregon's first team by eight pins, 2973 to 2965, while the junior varsity's comeback efforts netted it a 2866-2759 victory over the All-Star second team.

Top bowler of the day was Oregon's Eric Johnson who sparked the junior varsity with a 675 series. Johnson rolled a 190 first game and then came back with 236 in which he threw nine strikes and converted two spares. A 7-10 split in the seventh prevented a higher score. With 100 in the fifth frame of the second game, he then shot six straight strikes and left the 10 pin for a 249.

Leading the varsity was sophomore Dennis Murphy who came through with games of 193, 227 and 204, good for 624.

Three All-Stars Shoot 600
Three all-stars, all first team members, turned in 600 series. Jim Baxley had 641, Dwaine Tripp 618 and Don Kutz 611. High man for the second team was Bill Randle with 598.

Varsity coach Lou Bellisimo was very pleased with the team's showing. He said that "the boys were physically tight their first seven or eight frames, but after all, they realized they were bowling against some old pros. After that they loosened up though, and I thought they did a terrific job." In commenting about the overall scoring, Bellisimo added, "The ten pin gave all the bowlers trouble and kept the scoring down. We counted ten solid tens that Bill Starnes alone left." Starnes rolled 604 for the varsity team.

Other varsity scores were: Ron Babjar, 597; Jim Bradbury, 581; and Andy Smith, 556. Besides Baxley, Tripp and Kutz, Babe Edman and Dave Dennis shot 558 and 545 respectively for the all-stars. Backing up Johnson on the junior varsity were Larry Jones, 599; Larry Kraft, 577; Ike Fox, 567; and Arnie Fredrickson, 448. Bowling for the all-star second team besides Randle were Bob Gay, 591; Don Phillips, 557; Mick Keibelbeck, 552; and Howard Swan, 461.

Oregon's first team will have a chance for revenge Sunday, January 19, when the bowlers will meet at the Eugene Recreation, on Willamette Street, in the second of their five consecutive Sunday matches.

OREGON JUNIOR varsity team member Larry Jones picks up the seven pin in bowling action against the Allison's all-star second team Sunday. Jones rolled a 599 series to aid his mates, as they whipped their opponents, 2866 to 2759. Oregon's varsity was edged by Allison's 2973 to 2965.

Wrestlers Dealt Physical Beating

"It doesn't look very good for a week or so," said wrestling coach Mike Reuter.

Reuter had just returned with his varsity wrestling team from a four-day road trip that all but took the toll of his squad.

A number of things happened on the trip that left Reuter in a state of puzzlement:

- Four of Oregon's front-line wrestlers are on the doubtful list for the Oregon State meet this weekend — Monrad Bjorge (137 lbs.), Doug Robertson (130 lbs.), Doug Muck (157 lbs.), and Bruce Glenn (167 lbs.).

- The Ducks lost, 16-14, to Central Washington when, with the presence of Muck and Bjorge, they may have won handily.

Bjorge, who lost only 2-0 in his match against Multnomah Athletic Club, is presently nursing a strained deltoid muscle and is not expected to see action against the Beavers. Reuter said the X-rays showed the injury not to be serious.

Muck, Robertson, and Glenn are a bewildering trio. Robertson wrestled in four matches, but Reuter said, "He didn't look very good," neither in performance nor physical appearance. He may have the flu.

Muck, on the other hand, wrestled only one match and won by a forfeit against Washington State. Then against Eastern Oregon College in the last meet of the trip, Muck was tied at 0-0 when the first round ended and he almost passed out. Reuter said he withdrew Muck from the match. Muck's forfeit defeat is the first duel-meet match he has lost since his sophomore year.

Glenn, too, failed to meet the physical standards needed to complete a four-day trip. With only 10 seconds remaining in his match against EOC's Chuck Holliday and the match tied, 6-6, Glenn passed out. Holliday was awarded a take-down and the match, 8-6.

Things don't look very good for a week or so.

Reuter was greatly pleased with the performance of sophomore Bob Mitchell, though. Mitchell, from Klamath Falls, completed the trip undefeated in four matches — one an exhibition against MAC.

"He was the outstanding wrestler on the trip," said Reuter. "He's a tremendous leg-wrestler. He looks like he's in trouble all the time, but when he meets someone with no leg experience he over-powers them."

Mitchell, who was 8-0 as a freshman, is still undefeated as a college wrestler with 11 wins. Against MAC and EOC he competed at 157 lbs., while he wrestled at 167 against WSU.

Another wrestler who received plaudits from Reuter was former Pacific Coast 167-lb. champion Bob Keeney.

Keeney moved up from his 177-lb. position in the final two matches to post two victories in the heavyweight division.

His first win was against WSU's Randy Cooper, last year's Coast champion, 6-3. Keeney weighed 181, while Cooper scaled about 200 lbs.

Against EOC Keeney met 240-lb. Steve Strughum, and came away with a 2-0 victory. "He did a real good job," said Reuter. Reuter said because of Strughum's size, Keeney had some difficulty in doing anything with the big man.

The Ducks were 2-2 on the road trip, not bad considering the matches were on successive days and the team's physical condition. Oregon lost the first two matches, 22-8 to MAC and 16-14 to Central Washington, and won the final two matches against WSU and EOC, 25-5 and 23-11 respectively. Against WSU, Oregon didn't lose a match, but were forced to forfeit at Bjorge's 137-lb. weight.

Ducklings Lose 1st To Clark, 84-77

Oregon's undefeated Frosh basketball team is no longer undefeated.

The Frosh ran into a hot-shooting Clark J.C. team Saturday and lost 84-77. All five starters hit in double figures for the Penguins.

For Don Kirsch's team, center Dave Rompannen from Astoria led with 17 points, followed by Nick Jones with 15.

Frosh—Jones 15, Baldrige 8, Rompannen 17, Thomas 11, Drummonds 8, Craven 12, Malmquist 2, Briggs 4.

Clark J.C.—Owens 17, Hendrickson 13, Slick 16, Nagle 18, Walsh 11, Johnson 7, Dahlquist 2.

Frosh Grapplers Win Two Meets

Big Jeff McCrea was a mainstay of Ed Johns' frosh football team last fall.

Now he's helping Johns' freshman wrestlers win.

Last Friday McCrea won with a pin in just 13 seconds of the first round as the Duckling grapplers trounced Kelso High School of Washington, 31-10.

And Saturday the big heavyweight nabbed another victory—by decision this time. Oregon beat OTI, 17-11.

Says Johns of McCrea: "He's strong. He's got lots to learn, but he's a real horse."

McCrea was far from being the only winner against Kelso, though. In fact, five Ducklings won on pins, three more on decisions. Wayne Hanson's pin in 1:38 of round one in his 177 pound match was the second pin.

Jim Lowe, Johns' 157-pound ace, was the only wrestler to pin his opponent in both meets.

The Ducklings had a much tougher time against OTI than they did against Kelso. The Webfoots won only four matches, plus a forfeit. But it was enough to beat the Owls.
