

Eleven Attend Meet Of Republican League

Eleven University Republicans attended the State Republican College League meeting at Willamette University Salem Feb. 9. At the meeting the annual College Republican convention was tentatively set for April 10-11 in Portland.

Dave Walker, chairman of the University College Republican Club, reported on the club's growth and activity. Jim Jones, general chairman of the model convention committee, outlined the convention program and announced the convention kickoff Friday with the appearance of Hack Miller, Iowa senator, on the campus.

Carl Washburn, a Reed College delegate, gave a report on the Arts and Sciences Committee of the state organization. Michael H. Smith of the University is the committee's local representative.

In other business Sidney Smithers of Lewis and Clark College was appointed as finance director, and Gary Putnam was designated as state executive secretary.

State Representative Robert Packwood of Portland spoke on the coming primary campaign, outlining the manner in which college students can aid local candidates.

Clinic to Evaluate Learning Problem

An evaluation clinic for the child with learning problems will be held at the University Friday.

The symposium will take place in the Student Union and will be attended by an estimated 50 principals, county and district school superintendents, and special education personnel from schools in Linn, Lane, Douglas, and Coos counties.

The University School of Education and the Oregon State Department of Education are co-sponsors of the meeting. Mrs. Ruth Waugh, instructor in education, is in charge of arrangements.

Purpose of the symposium is to review the facilities available for children with learning difficulties and to discuss better ways of utilizing and improving them.

The symposium will be supported partially by funds from an annual grant from the State Department of Education to the School of Education for support of an educational evaluation clinic, part of the total program of school psychological services at the University.

Hamilton to Give Faculty Recital

Bach's "Partita 4, in D" will open a faculty recital of harpsichord music to be presented by John Hamilton at 8 p.m. today in the School of Music auditorium.

Hamilton, assistant professor of music at the University, also will play selections by Couperin, Rameau and Scarlatti.

Hamilton has appeared as both an organist and harpsichordist throughout the United States. He has also made numerous radio and television appearances, film scores and recordings.

He has been on the University faculty since 1959.
