

Local Church Groups Plan Discussions and Dinners

Lutheran

The Lutheran Student Association will meet for devotions, supper, and a program at 4:30 p.m. Sunday at Central Lutheran church. Ken Wieg will lead devotions, and University Associate Dean of Students Francis Nickerson will speak on "Student Self Control."

Special Lenten devotionals are being held every Thursday morning at Luther House, 1824 University St. Breakfast will be served at 7:00, followed by a service at 7:20.

Roger Williams Fellowship

Roger Williams Fellowship will host students from First Baptist church at a 5:30 p.m. meeting Sunday at Emerald Baptist church. The movie, "Through Gates of Splendor," telling of a group of missionaries killed in Peru, will be shown. Refreshments will be served.

Sack Snack and Chat will be held at noon Tuesday in the Student Union.

Unitarian

The Unitarian Channing Discussion Group will hold its regular meeting at 9 p.m. Sunday in the Student Union. The topic will be "The Personality of the South."

First Baptist Church

Dunc Ferguson will speak on "The Christian and the Sciences" at 9:45 a.m. Sunday. Dr. Dan Heinrichs will speak on "An M.D.

Looks at Marriage" at the college hour at 6 p.m. An all-college function will be held at Heinrichs' home at 8:30. For transportation call Larry Kirkpatrick, ext. 2147.

Congregational - Presbyterian

Joseph Haroutunian, professor at the University of Chicago Divinity School, will speak on "The Intelligence of Jesus" at a union meeting of our group with the Methodists on Sunday at 6 p.m. at Wesley House, 1236 Kincaid St.

Edward A. Dowey, of Princeton Theological Seminary, will speak on "Four Dimensions of Calvin's Theology" at 8 p.m. in the Student Union.

Baha'i

The Lane County Baha'i ski trip will be held Saturday. Anyone wishing to participate should call Al Canon, 933-2382.

A music program will be held at 4 p.m. Sunday at Friendly House, 2445 Kincaid St. Larry Henderson will show color slides of Mt. St. Helens and Mt. Adams to conclude the program.

There will also be a roundtable discussion on "Universal Religion—The Answer to Religious Unity" at 4:30 p.m. Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ives, 351 Strawberry Lane in Veneta. Guest speakers will be Aaron and Natalie Bowen of Salem.

Christian House

The Cellar Cafe Talent Show, "Ski Spree," will be given in the basement of the First Christian church, 1166 Oak St. at 7 and 9 p.m. tonight. The setting is a ski lodge with small tables at which guests may order refreshments of their choice. Tickets are 50 cents, and proceeds go into the student budget to provide a foreign student scholarship and conference and work camp scholarships.

Sunday evening's program following the 5 p.m. snack supper will begin a new series on the ecumenical movement among the churches.

Victor P. Morris will lead a discussion on "What Do the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) Have to Offer in the Ecumenical Movements?"

The Sunday morning discussion group continues following the a.m. coffee hour, the graduate seminary will meet at 9 p.m. Tuesday and chapel Wednesday will be at 7:30 a.m. Executive council is at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Wesley Foundation

All students are invited to attend Wesley Foundation's Sunday Seminar at 9:45 a.m., lead by the pastor director, Robert Kingsbury. The Book of John will be critically discussed.

Rides to local Methodist churches will be provided at 10:45 a.m. in front of Wesley, located next to the bookstore.

A snack supper for 35 cents will be served at 5:30 p.m. Both Wesley and the Westminster groups will meet at Wesley Foundation at 6 p.m.

The graduate student group will meet on Sunday at 9 p.m. for discussion.

Tri Delts Plan Swedish Dinner

The annual Tri-Delt-sponsored smorgasbord dinner is scheduled for 5 until 7 p.m. Sunday at the Delta Delta Delta sorority house.

All University deans and heads of departments have been invited. Each chapter member has also invited one of her professors as her guest.

This year's event follows a Swedish theme. Anna Rosenblad, foreign student residing at the chapter house, has provided tableware decorations from her homeland, Sweden. Other decorations will be from the Northland Gift Shop.

The menu includes authentic Swedish dishes which will be prepared by a Swedish native. Mrs. George Bjorset, housemother, is in charge of these arrangements.

Juniors Announce Activity Planners

Committee chairmen have been announced for the annual Junior class activities, the Junior Prom and Mothers' Weekend. The Prom will be held April 18, and Junior Week, including Mons' Weekend, will extend from May 4 to 10.

Committee chairmen are Gail Abrams and Suzanne Seeborg. All Campus Sing; Paul Cormier, Finance; Pam Reiley, Luncheon; Lynn Druehl, Mom's Weekend; Sherry Widen, Programming; Steve Walsh, Prom; Sherry Lucas, Publicity; and Shannon McCarthy, Queen Selection.

Living organizations will be receiving information soon about the All Campus Sing.

Lecture Features French Painter

Rediscovery of one of France's greatest painters, Delacroix, will be discussed by Lucile Golson of the School of Architecture and Allied Arts at 4 p.m. today in 106 Lawrence.

The address, one of the winter term series of AAA Faculty lectures, is open to the public.

Delacroix, who dominated the 19th century in art, is acknowledged today as great master of color and composition. Painters as different as Matisse and Picasso have recognized his influence on their development.

Miss Golson will present aspects of the forgotten Delacroix, including a discussion of the illustrations he made for Goethe and Shakespeare editions, religious paintings, and murals for government buildings in Paris.
