

Hot Hitting UO Runs Win String to 11

By BOB HAGIST

It was a hitter's weekend. That is, if you were a hitter on Oregon's baseball team.

The Webfoots rapped out 36 hits against the University of Portland as they swept a three-game series from the hapless Pilots. The three wins ran Oregon's winning streak to 11.

Friday the Ducks trounced Portland, 12-0, behind the five hit pitching of Robbie Snow.

On Saturday Oregon swept a doubleheader from the Pilots, 11-5 and 11-1.

On Friday rain shortened the game to 6½ innings. That was probably best for the Pilots as the Ducks had already gotten 11 hits and 12 runs. What could Oregon have done in nine innings?

Dean Banderas Homers

Cal Dean and Don Banderas homered in Friday's game. H. D. Murphy, Sandy Nosler, Dean, and Banderas each had two hits and Murphy and Banderas drove in three runs apiece.

Oregon scored first in the second inning when Dean hit his homer with one man on. In the fourth Banderas homered and got a two-run single as the Ducks struck for six runs. Terry Leininger contributed a two-run double to the rally.

The Ducks got four more runs in the fifth. Murphy's bases loaded double was the big hit. Pilot pitcher Ron DeVall contributed to his own downfall by walking two, hitting a batter and throwing two wild pitches.

Snow Pitches Well

Snow pitched well, giving up five hits, striking out seven, and not walking a man. He has now pitched 22 consecutive innings without giving up a run. Snow's victory gave him a 3-1 record for the season.

In Saturday's first game the Ducks found themselves behind for the only time in the series.

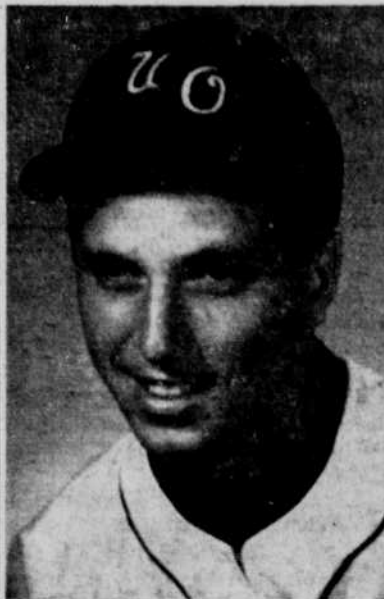

Oregon's Thatch McLeod, fresh from his no-hitter against Linfield, was a little wild in the first and the Pilots picked up two unearned runs.

Tom Hacking got on base on Ed Vetter's error and then both he and Mike Madden scored for the Pilots on Dennis Channing's single and Ken Falkner's sacrifice fly.

The Ducks came back with four runs in the second. Banderas singled, stole second, and came in on Ken Jensen's single. McLeod walked, and then Leininger singled home Jensen. Both McLeod and Leininger advanced on a passed ball and scored on Jeff Allen's single.

Channing Triples In Madden

The Pilots scored again in the third when Madden singled and scored when Channing hit a triple that bounced off the top of the right field fence at the 360 foot mark.

Four for Five On Weekend

The Ducks also scored in the third as Murphy singled and came home on Banderas' 360 foot double.

In the fourth the Ducks picked up three more runs. McLeod singled and went to second on an error. Leininger was also safe on an error, and Allen walked. McLeod scored on a wild pitch, and then Murphy brought Allen and Leininger home with a single.

In the Pilot sixth Mike Adams and Russ Aldridge singled and both scored as Vetter made his third error of the game.

Ducks Add Three Runs

The Ducks picked up three more runs in their half of the sixth. Dean singled and Vetter made up for the errors by driving him in with a booming triple. Banderas then hit a 350-foot shot over the left field fence for the final Oregon runs.

McLeod was not his sharpest, but he gave up only one earned run. He struck out two and walked only one as he ran his season record at 3-1.

In Saturday's second game Dale Jansen set the Pilots down with only four hits and would have had a shutout except for an unearned run in the second. Coach Don Kirsch played mostly reserves for this game.

Jansen started strong and finished stronger, striking out the side in the fifth, getting two Pilots to go down swinging in the seventh. He struck out a total of nine—and walked two. The win was his second against no losses.

The Ducks wasted little time as they scored three times in the first. Gordon Aevry's home run over the left field fence with Ron Peery aboard was the big blow.

The Pilots scored in the second when Madden singled and went to third on Doug Schillinger's single. Schillinger stole second and Madden scored when Allen dropped catcher Dennis McCarter's throw.

Jordan Doubles In Jansen

The Ducks scored again in the second when Jansen was safe on an error and Del Jordan doubled him in.

In the third Oregon scored once more when Les Bogner singled, Nosler singled, and McCarter drove Bogner home. In the fourth

The School of Health, Physical, Education, and Recreation has changed the time for co-educational recreational swimming.

The new time is 4 to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday in Leighton Pool. Family swimming will be from 2 to 4 p.m. on Sunday and recreational swimming for men students and men will be noon Monday through Friday and between classes on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Webfoot Bob Porter walked, went to second on a wild pitch, to third on Peery's single and scored on a wild pitch.

The Ducks exploded for five runs in the sixth. Jordan led off with a walk, Ogan walked, and Doug Werschkul singled in Jordan. Peery walked and Avery walked, forcing in Ogan. Werschkul scored on Gene Wagner's long fly out and McCarter singled. Then Jansen singled, driving in the game's final two runs.

Duck Golfers Beat Beavers

Oregon toppled Oregon State, 14-13, in a close golf match Friday in Corvallis.

John Hedlund and Mike Humphreys were the big men for Oregon. Hedlund was the medalist with a 67 and Humphreys won the deciding match, picking up three points against the Beavers Steve Vrtiska.

The only other Oregon individual winner was Tom Kabler but Hedlund and Bill Ward won one of the best ball competitions and Kabler and Butch Ogilvy managed a tie in another one.

Said Duck coach Elwood Kretzinger: "It was real clutch golf. I was very pleased with the way the boys came through when they knew they had to."

The Frosh also beat Oregon State over the weekend, 12-6, behind medalist Carvel Nelson.

Scott Qualifies For Olympic Meet

Oregon freshman Curt Scott won the 125½ pound championship in the Western Regional Olympic wrestling tryouts last weekend.

Scott defeated Gary Head of OSU, the Pacific Coast champion, 6-2 in his last match, to win. The victory makes him eligible to compete in the final Olympic tryouts this summer at the New York World's Fair.

Oregon Coach Mike Reuter said that Scott may be unable to go because of lack of finances.

Bruce Glenn just missed qualifying at 171 pounds when he finished third. He was beating winner Lynn Kaufman of OSU when Kaufmann pinned him. Glenn later defeated Ed Dewitt, who finished second, but he had run up too many points against himself in the loss to Kaufman.
