

'Side' Owner Dies, Rites Wednesday

Funeral services will be held Wednesday for Harvey Twite. The former owner of the College Side Inn on the University campus died Saturday.

Twite, 46, was owner-operator of the Bavarian Restaurant in Eugene since the Side was condemned last year and eventually torn down to make way for the Co-op Bookstore addition.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday at Central Lutheran Church, 18th Avenue and Potter Street, with Rev. Olaf Anderson officiating.

Survivors of the 19 year resident of Eugene include: the widow, Della; two sons and three daughters, Thomas, Garry, Elaine, LaNae, and Charlene. He is also survived by three brothers and two sisters.

Concluding services will be at West Lawn Cemetery, Eugene, with members of Elks Lodge No. 357 officiating.

ROTC Cadets To Elect Board

Members of the Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC) will elect six cadets Thursday to serve on the Cadet Mess executive board.

ROTC cadets will vote during the drill period for three sophomores and three freshmen.

Gary Conklin, board secretary, said the six new board members will serve for one year. The Cadet Mess coordinates extracurricular activities, including the annual Military Ball, for Army ROTC cadets.

Students Chosen For Council Seats

The off-campus council will hold its first meeting at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the Student Union. Twenty-five students have been named to the council, according to Jerry LaBarre, ASUO senator-at-large and chairman of the council.

The agenda for Wednesday's meeting will include the appointment of committee chairmen and a discussion of business initiated during the remainder of the year.

Plastic

Since the Surgeon General issued his report on the possible dangers to health from cigarette smoking, the scent of cigar smoke has become familiar in these halls of academia. It has come to obscure the sweet smell of the Oregon grape and daffodil which herald the coming of spring in the Willamette Valley. Only the eaters of Dairy Queen have remembered how the spring smells without the interference of tobacco. After they finish eating their curl-topped goodies they thoughtfully chew upon their Dairy Queen plastic spoons and find no need for cigars. You, too, can exchange your tobacco habit for a plastic spoon one as you smell spring again at 13th and Hilyard.

SNCC Mississippi Project Rep Due

Miss Carole Merritt, Mississippi field secretary for the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), will be on campus today to discuss the Mississippi summer project.

She will discuss the summer project at a coffee hour at 3 p.m. and later in a speech at 7:30 p.m. Both meetings, to be held in the Student Union, are sponsored by the campus chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE).

Applications for the summer project in Mississippi are due Wednesday in the ASUO office, third floor of the SU.

Miss Merritt, from Cincinnati, Ohio, is a graduate of Vassar College, and has worked for the National Scholarship and Service Fund for Negro Students. She went to Ghana in 1961 on "Crossroads Africa." She has been working for SNCC since last year.

Project Help Wanted

Petitions are now available for the summer Migratory Labor project. They may be picked up in the ASUO vice-president's office on the third floor of the Student Union and are due by 6 p.m. April 27.

Voluntary workers will assist public health workers in setting up clinics and seeing to the health needs of migratory laborers and their families.

The program, operated in the name of the ASUO, is being financed by a federal grant, awarded to the project last month. The grant totals nearly $19,000.

Salary for the 13 week session is $55 a month plus transportation expenses within the state. The orientation session for the program will be held at the University beginning June 15. Tuition, books, board and room during the training session will be paid for.

Each volunteer will be financially responsible for his room and board while working in various communities. The committee estimates that workers should be able to live for $1.50 a day in most cases.

The aim of the project is to place carefully selected students into an environment where they will be able to use their energy to improve living conditions.

Eliminations for the All-Campus Sing begin today and continue on Wednesday.

The groups will be narrowed down to three men's, three women's and four mixed.

Questions may be referred to Anita Bell, Ext. 1184.

International Coffee Slated Wednesday

"Happy Unbirthday" is the theme for this Wednesday's International Coffee Hour in honor of all foreign students' birthdays. Foreign students are asked to wear their native dress.

The coffee hour is held in Gerlinger Hall, first floor, at 4 p.m.

Opera Tickets on Sale

Tickets for the Kennedy Memorial performances of "The Consul," an opera by Gian-Carlo Menotti's modern opera, will be on sale in the lobby of the Student Union this afternoon.

The tickets, for the April 24 and 25 performances, are $2 each. Profits from the ticket sales will go to the ASUO fund for a student memorial to the late President John F. Kennedy. The money will be donated, in the name of the ASUO, to the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, the one national monument to the late President.

The memorial center will contain three auditoriums which may stage programs simultaneously.

The opera premiered in 1950. Menotti's other works have included "Amahl and the Night Visitors." Neil Wilson is the conductor for the production which opened at the University last weekend.

Settings for the opera are being designed by Peter Gygas, assistant professor of architecture. Gygas designed the sets used in last year's production "The Threepenny Opera."

Philosophy Budget Difficulties Prove No Worse Than Others

BY JANET GOETZE
Emerald Managing Editor

Just because students are buying blue books for tests in philosophy classes is no sign the department is fiscally ailing.

Department Head Frank B. Ebersole said Monday it is "quite ridiculous" to assume the philosophy department has a greater budget problem than any other department in the University.

Ebersole said because students must buy blue books for tests, which have been issued free previous to this year, jokes have evidently been circulating on campus about the department's budget situation.

The Emerald has received several inquiries from students during the past several weeks. Evidently some students have assumed instructors will leave because there is no money in the budget to pay them.

"We have had severe cuts this year, as has any department," Ebersole said. "There is nothing unusual about our situation."
