

Chemistry Professor Gets Research Award

Lloyd J. Dolby, associate professor of chemistry at the University has been named a Sloan Research Fellow to receive an unrestricted grant for basic research.

He is one of 91 young scientists in the United States and Canada who were named by the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation to receive the awards, which are for a two-year period.

Candidates do not apply for Sloan Research Fellowships, but are nominated by their department chairman or other scientists familiar with their research potential. Dolby will become one of three Sloan Research Fellows now conducting research at the University.

Previous Awards

Continuing research under grants awarded in previous years are Marshall Fixman, professor of chemistry, and Robert M. Mazo, associate professor of chemistry and director of the University's Institute of Theoretical Science.

At present Fixman is on leave from the University and is at Harvard University as a visiting professor of chemistry.

Other University faculty members who have been honored with the Sloan grants in previous years are Terrell L. Hill, John A. Schellman and Virgil C. Boekelheide, all professors of chemistry.

Faculty Member

Dolby has been a member of the University faculty since 1960. A native of Illinois, he received his bachelor's degree from the University of Illinois in 1956. He received his doctor of philosophy degree from the University of California in 1959.

From 1959 to 1960 he was a National Science Foundation post-doctoral fellow at the University of Wisconsin. His two major lines of research are the synthesis of natural products and investigations into the mechanism of the Prins reaction.

His research is also being supported by other grants totaling more than $50,000. This includes a Public Health Service grant of $13,998 from the National Institute of Mental Health, a grant of $21,500 from the National Science Foundation and a grant of $19,068 from the American Chemical Society.

THOMAS J. DOLBY
Sloan Research Fellow

Library Extends Saturday Hours

The University Library will be open longer on Saturdays during spring term. It will now remain open from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. It was formerly open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The reserve book room has also added 2 hours to its open schedule on Saturdays, remaining open from 5 to 7 p.m., a period that was formerly closed. New reserve room hours are the same as those for the general library on Saturdays.

Additional hours have also been added to open time at the branch library in the School of Architecture and Allied Arts. The AAA Library, formerly open on Saturdays from 8 a.m. to noon, will now also be open on Saturdays from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The changes, which will become effective on Saturday, April 3, were made in response to a recommendation from the ASUO Cabinet.

Publications Interviews Set

The Student Publications Board has released the following schedule of interviews and times petitions will be accepted for editor and business manager of The Emerald and Oregana and editor of Next:

- Oregana business manager—petitions due April 1, interviews, April 5.
- Emerald editor and business manager—petitions due April 7 interviews, April 12.
- Oregana and Next editor—petitions due April 17, interviews, April 12, interviews, May 3.

All petitions are due at 5 p.m. in the office of Burton A. Benson, student publications director, in the Student Union. All meetings will be at 7 p.m.

Fulbright Grant Recipient Named

Miss Charlotte Sue Potter, a senior in foreign languages, has been awarded a Fulbright grant to study and teach abroad during the coming year.

Miss Potter is the third University student to receive a Fulbright this month. Thora Mae Williams, a senior in journalism, and Raymond Pomerleau, a research assistant in international studies, have both received grants along with Lusian C. Marquis, associate professor of political science and director of the Honors College.

Miss Potter is currently studying advanced linguistics at the University of California in Berkeley, but will receive her degree here at the University in June.

The 23-year-old senior is planning to spend the next academic year in Italy where she will study Italian literature and work as a teaching assistant in a secondary school. The grant will cover all her travel and subsistence expenses while abroad.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Potter, 2087 Alder St. Her father is the vice principal of South Eugene High School.

Play Production Class Offered

A course in "producing the new play" will be offered during spring term at the University.

Original scripts from students have been submitted and are available for production, but there is a need for a roster of theatrical talent, including artists, designers and technicians to work in the program. Students, faculty and the general public are invited to participate.

Those interested should call the University Theatre at ext. 1781 or send a card to the UT stating name, address, telephone number and area of interest.

Horace W. Robinson, director of the UT, is in charge of the program.

Want to really get results?—
Use Emerald Classified Ads—
Phone 342-1411, Ext. 1818.

I love a man in Van Heusen "417"

It's wild, the way his long, lean good looks come on strong in that "V-Tapered" fit. Anyone can tell he's top man on my scene when he steps out in the stepped-up styling of authentic Button-Downs or smooth Snap-Tabs. And the added attraction of Van Heusen spring fabrics and colors make him my favorite distraction.

VAN HEUSEN
younger by design

V-Taper—for the lean trim look.

Ming's

"ORIENTAL FOOD PERFECTION"

CHINESE — AMERICAN — JAPANESE
POLNesian — INDIAN — BOMBAY

MAKE DINING OUT A UNIQUE PLEASURE AT

Ming's Restaurant

and
DRAGON DEN
26 W. 7th

ORDERS TO GO FREE DELIVERY 345-3031

DANCE

featuring

THE AQUANAUTS

(direct from tour with Dick and Dede)

SATURDAY, APRIL 3

9 p.m.-1 a.m.

CASCADE CLUB

Special rate from 9-9:30 p.m.

Pretty as a Picture

WITH AN EXCITING NEW PERSONALITY
created by exciting new frames personally selected by Columbian Style Consultants to flatter natural beauty.

"Sophisticate"... a sleek, simple frame... available in black, plum, bronze, linen or white frost.

Convenient Credit
We Give W. Green Stamps*

COLUMBIAN OPTICAL

Our 60th Year
120 West Broadway
343-9742

We Also Buy
Used Texts

Paperbacks

PAPERBACKS

Records RECORDS BOOKS STATIONERY Stationery

TEXTS

Texts

Hours
8-7:30 p.m.
9-5 on Saturday

Campus Bookstore

877 E. 13th