

Meet Waldo

On campus, Waldo was out of it.

The chicks didn't need him.

Different boys didn't even need him.

Not even Ban-the-Bombers.

Waldo didn't understand it. He used a spray on.

Then Waldo discovered T-Birds.

T-Birds have more planes and pilots than any other local flying group for student.

Suddenly, the coeds dug Waldo. (This picture was taken by another T-Bird member.)

Waldo was accepted.
