'Luther' Tops Weekend

By STEVE DIMEO
Entertainment Editor

Mulligatawny is usually a soup but it also aptly defines the variety of campus activities scheduled on this, the weekend before the last open week of the term. Tonight and tomorrow evening at 8 p.m. the University Theatre will begin its season's end with the dramatization of John Osborne's "Luther" which will also play on the evening of May 26 through 29. Only four years old, the play has already won the drama critic and "Toni" awards for 1964. Tickets run $1.50 per person.

Saturday at 8 p.m. Marc Ellington will sing to the left-handed strumming of his upside-down guitar in the SU ballroom. Admission will be $1.50 for adults, $1 for students.

Frosh Set "Urb"

The Frosh Tennis Court rock on concrete will finally be held tonight from 8:30-12:30 in the Walton-Earl tennis courts. "The Urb" will admit free only freshmen and their escorts. Dancing will be to the melodic noise of the Moguls. Bermudas and otherwise grubbies are preferred wear.

The SU all-campus water ski tournament is scheduled for this Sunday at Fern Ridge.

Surfing with wheels will try to make money for the Children's Hospital School tomorrow in the form of an all-campus, all-city skateboard tourney near the Veterans dorm on 17th St. Registration fees are 50 cents for one event, 75 cents for two.

"Fanny Hill" Playing

John Cleland's long-banned "Fanny Hill" has been brought in all its orgiastic splendor to the screens at the Heilig and the North End Drive-In.

Co-feature at the Heilig features (certainly not talent) of Jayne Mansfield in "Playgirl After Dark"—and in fleshly color yet. Co-billed at North End Drive-In is "Hell on Frisco Bay." At the Fox is "Sylvia," starring Carol Baker in the title role. Peter Lawford hires private eye George Maharis to look for the skeletons in Carroll's closest, of which there are many.

Brought back from last year to play as co-feature is the powerful "Seven Days in May."

Mayflower Bills 'Harlow'

The actress who lived up to her movie symbol as the personification of sex lives and dies out her problems for a second week — only this time at the Mayflower—in Bill Sargent's "Harlow." Go Naked in the World" sees Gina Lollobrigida as a "man-Keeler" and a girl who comes when she's called by either Tony Franciosa or his wealthy father, Ernest Borgnine.

And at the McDonald, Lana Turner plays another sexually-frustrated female who finds consolation at first with the gigolo Cliff Robertson, then with the gigolo Hugh O'Brien—and another

Cosmopolitan Club Schedules Dance

The Blue Masters will provide live entertainment for the first annual affair.

Danforth Graduate Schedules Recital

Victor Hill, Danforth Graduate Fellow in mathematics, will give a recital on the harpsichord at 8 p.m. Saturday, May 22.

He will play four selections two of which are by Bach, one by Jan Pieter Sweelinck and one by Jean-Philippe Rameau.

one, Ron Husman, on the side, until he dies to the lamentations of his other girl friend, Stefanie Powers. Co-featured is "East of Sudan."

The Eugene Drive-In is playing Robert Aldrich's "Hush... Hush Sweet Charlotte." Bette Davis, Olivia de Havilland, Joseph Cotten all put in effective performances in this gory tale.

"Two on a Guillotine" with Connie Stevens, Dean Jones, and Cesar Romero tries to complete the gory horror.

In a similar but perhaps pulpier vein, "The Lost World of Sinbad" and "War of the Zombies" will try to shock too at the Motor-Vu Drive-In.

USSR Revolution Topic of Lecture

J. L. H. Keep, visiting professor at the University of Washington, will talk on "The Moscow Insurrection of 1905" at 10 a.m. Friday in the SU.

Keep, who is on the faculty of the school Slavonic Studies at the University of London, is a scholar of considerable breadth and competence in Russian history, according to a member of the University's history department.
