YOUR STORE

Has a 45-Year Heritage
of Student Service

In the year 1920, the President of the University along with a number of faculty members subscribed to stock to create a university bookstore. By 1933 it was owned completely by the student members. Since these beginnings the Co-op has grown to be an intimate part of the present university. The Co-op is still growing to serve your needs. Each graduating class of students has left the Co-op as a legacy to future students—that they may profit from its growth and experience.
