Spiral Metal Company Holds Essay Contest

Spiral Metal Company, Inc., is sponsoring an essay contest on "The Potential Uses for Calcium Sheet and Foil."

Entries should be typed and should include the student's name and major. Originality and feasibility of the ideas will be the main consideration of the judges.

All entries must be sent to Spiral Metal Company, Inc., Broadway, South Amboy, New Jersey 08879 by Dec. 17, 1965.

First prize is $200; second, $100, and third, $75. Winners will be announced February 15, 1966. Prizes will be savings bonds.

UT Receipt Cards Due Now

Students who still have registration receipts for University Theatre season tickets are requested to exchange these receipts for their coupon books. Without the students' addresses the theatre cannot send advance notice of productions until they come to the box office with a receipt. And students cannot take advantage of the season ticket holder pre-order procedure until they have coupon books.

Season ticket sales will close Oct. 30, after which time all new subscribers will be assigned their official 1965-66 priority number. Student receipts must be in by this date, but it is urged that they be exchanged immediately at the UT's first major productions, "The Waltz of the Toreadors," opens Oct. 22.

The U.T. box office, adjacent to Villard Hall, is open weekdays noon until 5 p.m.
