

Society Sets Meeting Time

Group to Discuss Protest Gathering

A teach-in Saturday at Oregon State University and a large protest meeting in Salem Sunday will be discussed today at a meeting of the Faculty-Student Committee to Stop the War in Viet Nam.

The Salem meeting will be co-sponsored by groups from Portland State College, Lewis and Clark College, Willamette University, OSU and the University.

The Faculty-Student Committee's meeting will be at 8 p.m. in the SU and will be an open forum for the discussion of the group's plans for the 1965-66 school year.

Further information may be obtained by calling Bob Holmes at 345-5619.

New officers were elected, to serve for the coming year: president, Denny Dodge; vice-president Tom Cox; secretary-treasurer, Tony Hazapiz. The group's advisor is Phillip Beal, Assistant Dean of Men.

Meetings will be announced in advance. They will be held at 6 p.m. in the SU.

Musicale Series Starts Wednesday

The Morning Musicale Series sponsored by the alumnae of Mu Phi Epsilon, a national music honorary, announce a concert to be given Thursday at the University.

Pianist Virginia Marks from Washington, D.C., will appear in concert at 8 p.m. in the music auditorium.

Mrs. Marks, an alumna of Mu Phi Epsilon, is the winner of the Sterling Staff Concert Series Award given by the honorary to outstanding young musicians.

Season tickets for a series of three concerts, including the one on Oct. 14, are available through Mu Phi Epsilon members for $2. Single admissions for this concert will be available at the door for $1.50.
