

Student Thief Convicted, Dorm Raid Re-Hashed

A student charged with theft, a violation of section I.B.2.f. under the Conduct Code, was found guilty by Student Court in a closed session yesterday.

The student had allegedly taken some ceramic articles from the "Pot Shop," a ceramics room in Lawrence Hall. The Court suspended the student for the remainder of fall term. The student will be eligible for readmittance next term, however, according to Greg Reed, special assistant to the Student Conduct program.

Art Tarlow, a third year law student, represented the defendant at the Court session.

In another case handled by the Court yesterday, a former student was tried in absentia for violation of section I.B.3.c., raiding of University-related living units.

Two witnesses reported on the circumstances of the alleged raiding which took place last spring term in Carson Hall. According to their reports, the violation concerned a group of students from DeBusk Hall. However, only one, the defendant, was identified.

Reed reported that he had spent a number of hours trying to find out who the other members of the raiding party were, with no success.

Migrant Labor To Plan Work

There will be two meetings for all students interested in the Migrant Labor Project today: 4 p.m. and at 7 p.m. in the SU. Plans for two work parties in migrant labor camps on Saturday, Oct. 23, and Sunday, Oct. 31, will be discussed. These work parties, which will do painting, building and repair work at the camp, will leave the SU at 6:30 a.m. and will return at approximately 8 p.m.

The Court found the defendant guilty. However, since the person is not attending the University this term, the Court will impose a sanction of disciplinary probation on the defendant whenever he returns as a student.

Officer to Give 'Draft Facts'

Col. John H. Nielson will speak on "The Facts About Military Drafts" at 1 p.m. today in the SU Ballroom. After his speech Col. Nielson will answer any questions.

The colonel was born in Medford and attended college at Southern Oregon College and the University. He enlisted in the Army in 1940 and was commissioned a second lieutenant the same year.

After serving 18 months in the South Pacific and 10 months in infantry combat, Col. Nielson returned to the United States for flight training. He later served for six months and 29 missions as a bombardier in Italy.

Col. Nielson has been the recipient of the Combat Infantry Badge, the Bronze Star, and the Air Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster.

He was appointed to his present position in 1953.

Cosmos to Honor United Nations

The Cosmopolitan Club will have an evening of entertainment at 8 p.m. Saturday in the SU Ballroom. Honoring the United Nations, the entertainment will feature dances by foreign students in their native costumes. All students are invited. Refreshments will be served.
