

Foreign Student Reception To Hear Speeches, Intros

The annual reception for foreign students at the University will be at 7:30 p.m. today in the Student Union Ballroom.

This reception is sponsored by the Foreign Student Friendship Foundation to give the Eugene-Springfield community and the University a chance to extend a welcome to and introduce the new foreign students. Friendship families are asked to either bring their students or arrange to meet them at the SU.

Mrs. Arthur Flemming, chairman of the steering committee, will be mistress of ceremonies for the program. Brief welcome speeches will be given by ASUO President Steve Goldschmidt; Cosmopolitan Club President Peter Maync; Dean Charles Duncan for the University; Eugene Mayor Edwin Cone, and Springfield Mayor David Scofield.

Refreshments and a social hour will follow the program. All interested persons are invited to attend.

The International Coffee Hour held every Thursday at 4 p.m. has been cancelled this week so that students will have more time to prepare for the Foreign Student Reception slated for this evening.

Kenneth Ghent, foreign student advisor, will introduce the new students. Students are asked to wear their national dress if possible.

Air Force Band To Arrive For Concert

The United States Air Force Band with the Singing Sergeants will be presented in concert at the University Sunday.

The concert, presented under the auspices of the Student Union Board, will be at 8:00 p.m. in McArthur Court. It is free to the public.

The University concert is one of 35 that will feature the Band and the Singing Sergeants on their current West Coast states tour. The tour, will cover 26 cities in California, Idaho, Oregon, Utah, and Washington.

Major Arnold D. Gabriel, Commander and Conductor of the Air Force Band, will conduct the concert in Eugene. Under his baton, the musicians will perform a broad range of music from classic to contemporary popular.

The Singing Sergeants will be featured in "Song of the Golden Calf" from Faust by Gounod. Sgt. Ken Carter, bass-baritone, will be the soloist.

Of particular interest in Oregon is the fact that the USAF Band composer-arranger, Sgt. Serge de Gastyne, is a graduate of the University of Oregon. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree in composition here before entering the Air Force in 1955.

Campus Briefs

Announcements for Campus Briefs must be turned in by 3:30 p.m. the day before publication. Because of space limitations, no announcements will be run more than twice.

Fresh 200 will have a mandatory meeting at 6:30 p.m. today in 138 Commonwealth. Those who are planning to take the charter bus to Portland for the Washington game Saturday should bring their $3.50. Don't forget to pick up your ticket to the OSU game.

"Oedipus Rex" will be shown by the SU Movie Committee at 7 and 9 p.m. today in 150 Science. Admission will be 50 cents.

Col. John Nielson will speak on "The Facts About Military Deferments" at 1 p.m. today in the SU Ballroom.

The recorded jazz concert schedule for tonight has been cancelled. Instead, singer-harmonicist Ronny McLean from New York will appear in the Bottom of the Bowl at 8 p.m. Committee members should meet at 6:45 p.m. today.

Angel Flight will meet at noon today in 125 French. This is the last day for juniors who have not paid their dues.

The Homecoming Button Steering Committee will meet at 7 p.m. today in the SU workshop.

Homecoming button sellers in living organizations will meet at 4 p.m. today in the SU. Turn in all money collected so far and check out more if you need them.

There will be a meeting of all those who are interested in working on the Sophomore Class Newsletter at 4 p.m. today in the SU.

Those who are interested in hiking on Sunday should check the sign-up sheet on the Recreation Council notice board in the SU Fishbowl.

A girl's volleyball interest group meets from 7 to 8:30 p.m. today in the Outdoor Gym.

College Life will meet at 9 p.m. today at the Sigma Chi house.

The Coffee Hour is a YMCA-YWCA sponsored project to further friendships between foreign and American students. Next week's meeting will be highlighted with colorful slides and clothing from Spain.

Hennacy to Talk For Socialists

Ammon Hennacy, outspoken pacifist and anarchist, will lecture on his life at 8 p.m. Friday in the SU.

His lecture is sponsored by the Students for Socialist Action, now affiliated with the Students for a Democratic Society. Hennacy spoke to the University student group last February.

Hennacy operates the Joe Hill House of Hospitality in Salt Lake City and has conducted his "one-man revolution" for many years as a pacifist demonstrator, lecturer, and author.

"The Book of Ammon" is the title of his recently-published autobiography.

In his speech last year on war resistance, Hennacy was quoted as saying, "When you get to be 18, don't go." Hennacy said he was imprisoned for avoiding the draft in both wars.

SU Board ...

The Beach Boys, five singers who have never appeared on a college campus before, may perform at the University in November, an SU committee also reported.

Nov. 3 will be the 15th anniversary of the SU. Board members are making plans for a party in the basement of the SU. (Last year free cake was served.)

The Retreat to discuss SU problems, planned for last week, was cancelled because many members did not show up. Dick Lawrence, chairman of the SU Board, said that members should choose between the Board and conflicting activities.

Lawrence said the purpose of the Board is to find and do something about students' needs.

"Attendance is needed to get something done," he reminded.

Cello, Piano Recital To Feature Faculty

Sonatas for cello and piano will be presented in recital by two University School of Music faculty members at 8 p.m. today in the School of Music auditorium.

Performing will be Robert Hladky, associate professor of cello, and William C. Woods, associate professor of piano.

The program will include "Sonata No. 2 for Cello and Piano," written in 1941 by Martinu, "Sonata in F Major for Cello and Piano, Op. 99" by Brahms, "Sonata for Cello and Piano" by Debussy, and "Sonata in A Major for Cello and Piano, Op. 69" by Beethoven.

Both artists are members of the University Trio and frequently appear in recitals together. Among other appearances this past summer, they performed for the state convention of the Oregon Music Teachers Association in Corvallis.

The public is invited to attend and to meet the artists following the recital. No admission will be charged.
