

Soccer Teams End Undefeated

The University Soccer club blanked Lewis and Clark in Portland Saturday, 2-0, and completed the 1965-66 Oregon Intercollegiate Soccer Association season with a 9-0 record.

The record is the first perfect mark in the three year history of the OISA, and the Ducks gained the loop championship for the second time in three seasons. Lewis and Clark, 1965 winners, returned the Walter Kyllmann Cup to Oregon following the final contest.

event pass to the finals. "Our brightest hopes are on the trampoline," Smith said, "all four of our men, John Turchi, Tom Heimbeigner, Larry Jackson, and Art English are top performers." Smith also hoped for high points from Turchi in the floor exercise and Allen Amsbury on the horizontal bar.

"Our vaulters, Mike Olsen, John Palmer, Jim Huston, Dave Telling, and Don Cooper are also strong contenders," commented Smith, "and Palmer, Huston, Jim Civey, and Ken Belt can give our team some valuable points on the parallel bars.

"Our weak events are the side horse and the still rings," the Duck coach concluded, but if these boys hit their maximum who knows what will happen?"

Ellingson to Attend Directors' Confab

Ellingson will preside at a meeting of delegates attending their first conference of the Association of College Unions-International. He is immediate past president of the association.

The conference keynote address, "The College Student of the Sixties" will be given by Nevitt Sanford, director of the Study of Human Problems and professor of psychology and education at Stanford University.

Participants will also consider the college union's purpose and the union staff member's responsibilities.

One of the oldest inter-college educational organizations, the Association of College Unions-International is in its 52nd year.
