

Flack to Lecture From Platform

John Flack, traveling representative for the Campus Crusade for Christ, will speak at 1 p.m. today from the Student Union free speech platform. He will speak about the relevance of faith in college life and the relevance of Christ in life today.

Flack has spoken from several free speech platforms across the country including UCLA and the University of California at Berkeley, where he spoke in Sproul Hall to a crowd of 3,000 listeners without hecklers.

This is Flack's seventh year on the Campus Crusade staff. As national men's representative, he visits 50 to 60 college campuses each year and he speaks to approximately 150 fraternities, sororities and living groups annually.

Flack attended Princeton University in the mid-1950's and attended graduate school at Dallas, Tex. He earned his master's degree in theology from Dallas Theological Seminary.

In 1961 Flack was interim professor of English at Rikkyo University in Tokyo, Japan. In 1963 he toured the world visiting 32 nations, including Russia. In 1964 he was voted one of the most outstanding young men in America by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.
