

"What the hell is a university doing buying guns, anyway?"

[In the same issue: A home-study course on Marshall McLuhan by Howard Gossage; Felix Greene's China in color; A survey of LSD and beyond; Camilo Torres, the Guerrilla Priest; and more.]

The study of a sellout. The April issue of RAMPARTS chronicles how and why Michigan State University abdicated its integrity in a calculated search for gold and glory in Vietnam; how it hired cops and CIA agents and gave them professorial status; why it bought tear gas, guns, grenades for Ngo Dinh Diem.

RAMPARTS documents what happens when any major university puts its academic credentials on lend-lease to American foreign policy.
