

Ersted Award Nominations Due Next Monday

Students are now being encouraged to make nominations for the Ersted Awards, presented annually to outstanding young teachers at the University.

Two such awards—$1,000 each—are given annually at the University.

Monday is the deadline for nominations, and students are urged to nominate their favorite teachers for the award as soon as possible.

Nominations should consist of the names of teachers being nominated and the reasons why the students think they should receive the award.

These should be turned in to Don DuShane, dean of students, 207 Emerald Hall, on or before Monday.

DuShane has emphasized that the nominations require no analysis of the teachers, only their names and reasons for the nomination.

Previous winners of the award are not eligible for another. Previous winners at the University are Roland Bartel, David Baerncopf, Stanley Greenfield, Bernd Crasemann, Paul Dull, Lucian Marquis, John Hulteng, George Streisinger, and Stanley Pierson.

The awards were started eight years ago by A. J. Ersted, to encourage and reward "distinguished and spirited teaching" by faculty members.

Accumulated interest on the funds has made possible the giving of two awards. Before 1965, only one award was given.

The money is made available through the University Development Fund.

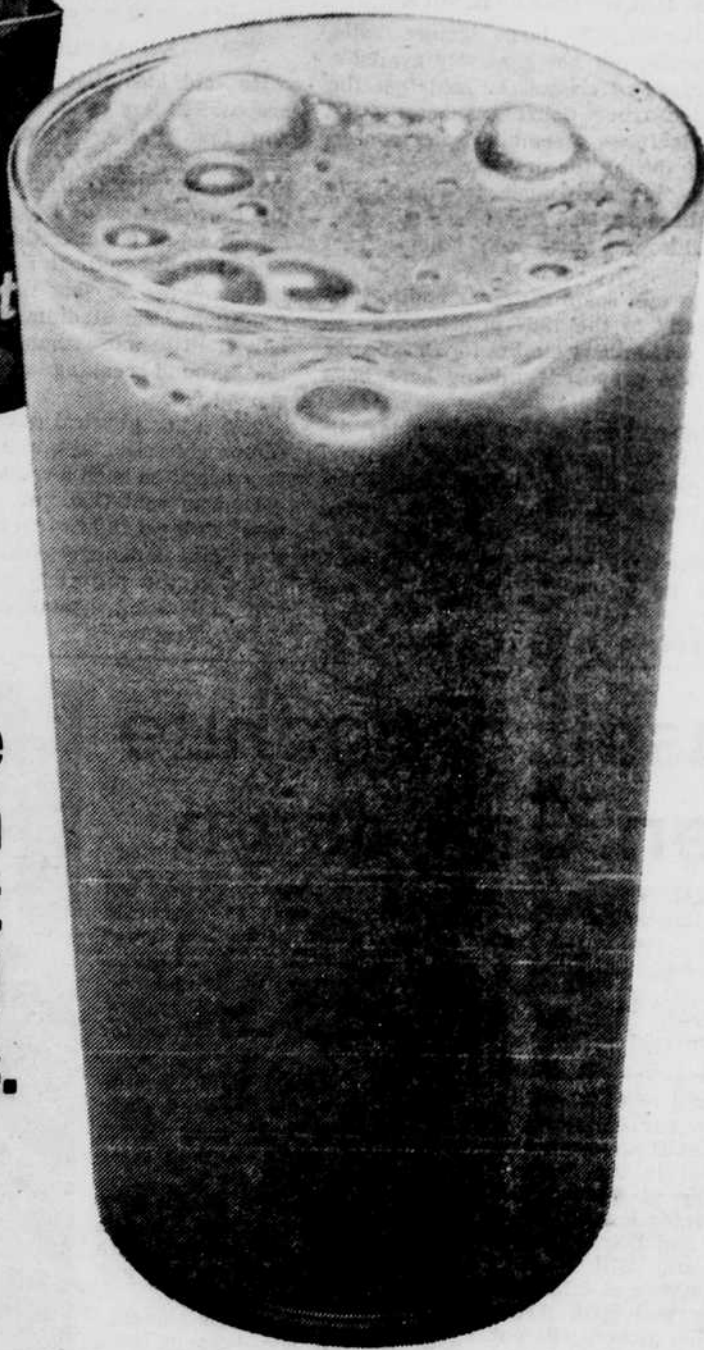

Phone 342-1411, Ext. 1818.
Use Emerald Classified Ads—

Yesterday, you may have had a reason for missing a good, nourishing breakfast.

Today, you don't.

Now you can have new Carnation instant breakfast
—makes milk a meal
that's too good to miss.

Each glass delivers as much protein as two eggs,  as much mineral nourishment as two strips of crisp bacon,  more energy than two slices of buttered toast,  and even Vitamin C—the orange juice vitamin.  It comes in a lot of great flavors, too. Look for them in your cereal section.