He's for Mark

Emerald Editor:

As the general elections for the following year's class officers approach, I feel a few words should be said about one of the candidates for senior class president, Mark Dennett.

Every year the key problem facing the officers of the senior class is apathy among the seniors. Rather than try to overcome this apathy, which in all probability is an impossible task, the officers will achieve success in the functions of the senior class by coupling good organization with the dynamic leadership ability of the president.

Mark certainly qualifies in both of these areas. He has in the past been chairman of the Homecoming Dance and Concert Committee—by no means an easy task. The great success of this dance (the Henry Mancini concert and dance of 1964) reflects Mark's tremendous organizational ability.

One year earlier, he chaired another job requiring keen organization, the Dad's Day luncheon. This year, as junior class vice-president, he has had an integral part in the staging of Junior Week. But what is equally as important as all these activities is that in each, Mark has earned the respect of all those he has worked with.

His interest and leadership have gained him tremendous knowledge about the class, from its outset in 1963-64 right up to the present. In short, Mark has awareness of the situation—the keen insight required to successfully lead next year's senior class.

For these reasons, I believe Mark is the choice for senior class president. His energy is boundless; his type is the type the senior class needs at its helm next year.

Thanks, Group

Emerald Editor:

I would like to take this time to thank my campaign manager, Steve Moore, and the 553 people who voted for me in the primary election.

I would now like to endorse two of the remaining candidates in the senator-at-large race. They are Ed Davis and Paul Tuttle. Both are good men and both should be on the ASUO Senate.

Ed Davis and I both agree that there are three major steps to be complete in student government to make the system better. We both believe that Oregon should leave the NSA, that there is a need for better student representation in the ASUO Senate, and that the Senate should not debate national and international affairs.

Paul Tuttle and I don't see eye to eye on all the issues. But, I know Paul is deeply concerned with student government and he will work hard if he were elected.

Thus, to the 553 that voted for me: I say thanks again for your support, and I hope you will join with me in voting for Ed Davis and Paul Tuttle for senators-at-large.

Bad Breaks

Emerald Editor:

We were stunned by the lack of press honesty on the part of the Emerald in its recent coverage of the debate between Steve Goldschmidt, Tom Clark, and Randy Gragg before the IFC on the subject of the National Student Association. Unfortunately there is only one news source for the majority of the students on this campus and even more unfortunately that news source is the Emerald.

We respect the right of a newspaper to have its own feelings towards different issues, but these should be left to the editorial page. In the debate, four points were brought out by each side, however, in the coverage only two of Gragg's points were stated and those only very briefly. He stated that the NSA was not only undemocratic and unrepresentative, but also that it is compulsory and anti-Greek.

It should also be noted by those reading this letter that due to the time that the article was printed, four days after the debate, letters such as this must be put in at a late time so that they will appear after the voting on Wednesday. We would in the future appreciate greatly a higher devotion to duty and intellectual honesty on the part of the Emerald.

Editor's Note: Due to the late-breaking story of the auto accident Sunday and space limitations, we had to cut this story on the proof. It was not intended as a form of intellectual dishonesty.

For Randy

Emerald Editor:

I am for Randy for senator at large. I think he will make a good senator at large and I think he should elect him. As a member of SWINE, YAF, and YR's I have watched Randy play for a major part in the actions of those groups.

The ASUO Senate needs people of his political caliber to make things go. Randy will be able to play a big part in the campus political life. He has all the needed and necessary qualifications. So I urge you all to vote for Randy Gragg for senator at large.

A News Slant

Emerald Editor:

I was shocked, or should I say upset over the obvious one-sided coverage of the debate between Steve Goldschmidt, acclaimed President of the "Associated Students of the University of Oregon," and Jim Hill, elected treasurer of the University's chapter of Young Americans for Freedom. Just because you or your staff do not agree with a policy, it is not necessary to editorialize the coverage of the policy in a news article. There is a special section in your "paper" for such editorials.

In the future would it be too much to expect to find editorials on the editorial page and news articles in the news section?

Editor's Note: No, Mr. Griffin, we will try to keep them separate. Please see the Editor's Note on "Bad Break" for an explanation.
