Kaspari Heads 74 Entries In PNW Women's Tourney

The top collegiate women tennis players in the northwest will compete in the Pacific Northwest Women's Championships at the University Friday and Saturday.

Heading the 74 entrants from Washington, Oregon, and Montana will be Oregon's own Julie Kaspari, who will get the number one seed, reported Lois Youngen, Oregon women's tennis coach and tournament chairman.

Kaspari, currently ranked second in the Northwest, earned the number one spot when she defeated the number two seed, Washington's Cande Webb, in last weekend's AAWU championships.

The number three and four seeds will be Mary DeLay from Central Washington State and Sandy Jones from Washington State.

No doubles seeds will be made but Washington's Jacobsen and Lutey and Washington State's Luther and Fogg will be favorites.

Entrants will arrive Thursday evening for registration and then will begin play at 9 a.m. Friday.

Doubles will be played on the 15th Street courts and singles will be played on the Alder Street courts.

The semi-finals are scheduled for 9 a.m. Saturday and the finals for 12 noon. Both will be played on the Alder Street courts.

In tennis action today Oregon's men's team will try to avenge a previous 8-1 loss to Oregon State when they host the Beavers at 3:45 p.m.

Take a friend to college with you this week.

It's true. Only 2.7 percent of the people in the United States are in college today. Only .03 percent are in Oregon colleges. And only .0056 percent of the people in the nation go to the University of Oregon. Pretty exclusive.

But don't be snobbish about it. Why not invite a friend to go to college with you one day this week?

And while you're at it, why not bring your friend by The College Inn. We aren't snobs, either.

Oh, it's true we'll probably have a president of the student government, a president-elect, class presidents, and all that living at The College Inn. But we'll also have boys and girls who aren't anybody living here. And I mean, anybody.

We'll probably have people who work at things you've never even heard of. Like Yo-Yo winders, pogo stick lubricators, piggy bank guards, meteorologists for kite flying clubs, bobby pin reconditioners, pennant pressers and mechanical rabbit breeders.

They'll live at The College Inn because of the reasonable rates. They'll study hard in the "quiet" lounge, eat lots of our good food, enjoy our fine recreation facilities, our comfortable rooms, maid service, and everything.

And then, they'll be graduated and become the foremost Yo-Yo winders, pogo stick lubricators, piggy bank guards, bobby pin reconditioners, etc., in the country.

That's America for you.
