

Buchanan to Appear...

seized a marijuana "brick" which they said was worth $500 or more.

Leeper was accused of having both marijuana and "opium" in his possession Thursday. Lane County District Attorney William Frye said the "opium" charge referred to heroin.

Leeper is not a University student.

• Rik Bogen, a former University student, of 2350 Columbia St., was arrested Monday at a shopping center. He is accused of attempting to obtain pills of numorphane, a morphine derivative, by use of allegedly forged prescriptions.

Police quoted Bogen as saying he had been using narcotics since he was 15 years old. He said he learned a great deal about drugs in a chemistry class at the University.

Of the four, Leeper pleaded innocent Monday, and Brostoff and Dorris asked for more time before entering a plea.

A fifth man, Marvin Brost, also appeared in court Monday and pleaded innocent. Brost, who lists Seattle as his home, was arrested on May 20 in Vida. He is accused of having marijuana and LSD in his possession.

Neither Miss Buchanan nor District Attorney Frye, who is attempting to get the contempt charge against her, would comment on whether the arrests were related to her case.

Miss Buchanan faces a maximum of $300 and six months in jail for contempt. Both she and Johnson have said they may appeal the case if they get an unfavorable verdict in the Lane County courts.

Other recent developments in the case, which has attracted nationwide attention:

• Frye denied Friday that he will run for District Attorney in November. There had been a persistent rumor that he might run as a write-in or an independent. His term expires at the end of this year. He abandoned the post in an unsuccessful try for the Democratic nomination for Congress.

Frye told the Eugene Register-Guard, "Apparently there are many persons anxious to have me stay in office and I'm flattered by this turn of events. I have no plans to get on the ballot. The chances are remote that I would even consider doing so."

• A trust fund has been established to assist Miss Buchanan. Contributions to help defray her legal expenses should be sent to the Annette Buchanan Defense Fund, in care of her attorney, Arthur C. Johnson, 641 Pearl St., Eugene. Miss Buchanan said, "money is needed. A major portion of the costs have been put up by an anonymous donor."

• Miss Buchanan is currently answering about 230 letters she has received about the case. She said they are running about 50-1 in her favor.

SU Photo Exhibit Now on Display

The exhibit features approximately 50 photographic prints representing examples of contemporary photographs from all over the world. All prints are selected from prize-winning photographs in the "Popular Photography" $25,000 International Picture Contest.

The exhibit covers a broad range of subject matter from dramatic and human interest photographs to landscapes and outstanding examples of portraiture.

Flemming to Give Annual Address

The annual President's address and reception for the summer session will be held at 8 p.m. Monday in the Student Union.

Students, faculty, and visitors are invited to hear University President Arthur S. Flemming and to join with him for coffee immediately following the address.

University Promotes 51 Faculty Members

Annual faculty promotions at the University have raised 22 members to the rank of professor, 22 to the rank of associate professor, five to the rank of assistant professor, and two to senior instructor.

The promotions are effective July 1.

Promoted to senior instructor, both with tenure, are Ruth Waugh and James R. Booth, education.

Senior Takes Valteau Award

Merton L. Cochran, senior in political science, has won the $50 1966 John Valteau Civil Liberties award at the University for his paper on "The Police and the Rights of Defendants."

The Valteau award was established in 1965 by John Valteau, Jr., a graduate of the University School of Journalism who is now a resident of San Diego, Calif.

Valteau established the annual competition for papers written on some aspect of civil liberties because of his "admiration for University President Arthur S. Flemming's straightforward and courageous defense of freedom of communication" on the University campus.

Listed for honorable mention in the 1966 competition were David H. Prescott, senior in history who submitted a paper entitled "Medical Treatment and Freedom of Religion," and Jane E. Decker, junior in political science who wrote on "Equal Education: the Community's Response."

LSD Banned In Oregon

The fantasy-producing drug LSD has been considered a dangerous drug by order of the State Drug Advisory Council since Feb. 1.

The Oregon State Board of Pharmacy said LSD and a number of others, including peyote and mescaline, were added to the Dangerous Drugs Act of Feb. 1 after a public hearing.

Under Oregon law, the Drug Advisory Council determines which drugs come under the state's regulatory statute.
