

35 on Law School's Spring Honor Roll

Thirty-five students are listed on the University Law School honor roll for spring term, 1966.

The law school's honor roll includes all students with a term average of 3.00 or higher, carrying a full study program. It is based upon the grade point average covering work done in the school during spring term.

Arrangement of names within each class is according to rank order.

Lyle C. Velure heads the third-year class, followed by Frederick G. Capell, Robert L. Srite, Peter L. Barnhisel, William B. Freck, Helen J. Frye, Paul R. Duden, Jerry W. Hendricks, John P. Kneeland, Thomas N. Tomashak, Frank H. Hilton, George C. Spencer, Gary Robert Ackley, and Margaret Ann Willoughby.

Heading the second-year class is Robert L. Miller, followed by Carl W. Hodges, Stewart R. Wilson, Douglas C. Combs, Kenneth D. Stephens, Ralph M. Davison, Laurence F. Janssen, Sydney D. Eves, William E. Flinn, James H. Morton, Charles F. Pinkerton, Robert N. Hackett, and Charles D. Morberg.

The first-year class is headed by Laird C. Kirkpatrick. Other members of the class on the honor roll are Wilson C. Muhlheim, Wayne E. Allen, William L. Hallmark, John C. Hutchison, Charles A. Griffith, John W. Gould, and Walter M. Hackett.

Band Soloists To Perform

High school band soloists from four western states will be featured at a concert at 8 p.m. Monday in the School of Music auditorium.

The students are participants in the band division of the 19th annual High School Music Summer Session. They represent high schools in Oregon, Washington, California, and Idaho.

Twelve soloists will be chosen to perform from 250 students attending the band summer session.

In addition to scholarships to attend next year's High School Music Summer Session, prizes for best performances will be awarded by the Eugene Music Company.

Library Fine Rates Changed

The Oregon State Board of Higher Education has adopted a new schedule of Library fines for the University. The new schedule will become effective with the start of summer term.

Books borrowed before that date which become overdue after that date will be fined according to the old schedule of 5 cents per day.

The new regulations require a fine of 25 cents per day—with a maximum fine of $10—for each overdue book, recording, or other library material other than reserve books.

There is no change in the existing regulations for violation of the following rules governing reserve books:

For overdue books 25 cents for the first hour and 25 cents for each succeeding hour, or portion thereof, which the Library is open (maximum $10.00) until the book is returned or reported lost (a charge of $1.00 per hour may be assessed in case of flagrant violation of the rules);

For failure to return books to the proper department desk, 25 cents.

Borrowers losing Library materials are charged the replacement cost of the material, the amount of fine incurred up to the time the material is reported missing (maximum $10), and a service charge of $3.00 for each title.

Books needed for use in the Library are subject to recall from anyone at any time. A maximum fine of $1.00 a day may be imposed for failure to return promptly.

ASUO to Hold Hours On Third Floor SU

ASUO President Henry Drummonds and Vice President Lee Bollinger will hold office hours from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Thursday in their offices on the third floor of the Student Union. Bollinger said students are invited to come up and discuss problems which they feel student government might aid in solving.

Library to Honor Bernice Rise

Miss Bernice Rise will be honored by the University Library Staff Association with a tea in the Student Union Browsing Room from 3 to 4:30 p.m. today.

Miss Rise is retiring as Browsing Room librarian. During her years of service she developed many programs for bringing students and books together.

She encouraged students to build libraries of their own through the Student Private Library contest; she established house libraries to encourage reading in living organizations. In a series of weekly Browsing Room lectures Miss Rise and the Friends of the Library brought outstanding visiting and local speakers to the room.

Miss Rise's future plans include travel and advisory services to other libraries.
