SU Pool Prices Now Increased

As student and faculty "hustlers" may have noticed, the price of playing pool in the Student Union basement has been raised.

Last year the price was 75 cents per table per hour. This year the price was upped to 90 cents per table per hour.

The raise was necessary to meet the increased operational expenses of all the SU basement recreation facilities, said SU Director Jack Cross. This includes the cost of recovering the pool table tops.

Although it could just as well have been the price of bowling or table tennis that was raised, Cross said it was simpler to raise only pool prices, rather than trying to average out the prices between all facilities, which would create half-cent headaches.

There are no plans to raise the price of bowling or table tennis this year.

The price of pool in the SU is still considerably below that of commercial pool houses.

The commercial price is "about $1 per person (as opposed to per table) per hour, at the least," said Cross.

Rhodes Scholarships Applications Available

Applications for Rhodes scholarships for study at Oxford University, England, must be submitted by October 31, 1966.

A candidate must be a male, unmarried U.S. citizen between the ages of 18 and 24 on October 1, 1966. Thirty-two awards are available for the U.S.A. applications. Further information may be obtained from Kenneth Ghent, foreign student adviser, 201 Emerald Hall.

Fabrics Exhibited At SU Art Gallery

A fabric exhibit which includes examples of tie-dye, batik hand-blocked cloth, a Rya rug, and stitchery will be on exhibit in the Student Union Art Gallery through Saturday.

The fabrics were executed by Jane Gehring, assistant professor in art education at the University. Many of her designs have been purchased by Sunset and McCall's magazines.

The artist has designed for Bassett and Bollum in Chicago and Wall Trends in New York. Examples of her work have appeared in one-man shows throughout the United States.

Several of her designs are currently on circulating exhibit which are available to cities throughout the state under the sponsorship of Friends of the Museum.

A show by Mrs. Gehring for the Western Association of Art Museums has recently returned after a two-year tour.
