

Opening Of Latest UT Production, 'Dylan,' Scheduled for Tonight

REHEARSALS continue in preparation for the University Theatre production of "Dylan," which opens tonight. Performances are scheduled for this weekend and for October 26-29. Tickets are available from 12 to 5 p.m. at the UT box office and until 9 p.m. on evenings of performances.

Out of the raucous music of a burlesque house, a blaring speaker announces the glories of Miss Wonderland, stripper extraordinaire, and the audience comes to life.

Tonight will be the unveiling, promises Director Horace Robinson, of the University coed rehearsing the role of Miss Wonderland in secret. While her name isn't on the program, she will capture the center of attention. "This is a first in burlesque for the University Theatre," remarked Robinson, "but if it's going to be done, it must be done well." "Dylan," opening tonight at the University Theatre, relates the last two years of Welsh poet Dylan Thomas when he gave poetry readings on American college campuses.

Not always where he should be nor in the condition he should have been, "One of the places he visits," Robinson explains, "is the old burlesque theatre in Boston — a place where Supreme Court justices and Harvard faculty members claim to have spent their mis-spent youths."

Tickets for "Dylan," playing this weekend and October 26-29 are $1.50 on weekdays and $2 on weekends at the University Theatre box office (ext. 1781), open 12-5 p.m. and until 9 p.m. on evenings of performances.

PP Picks...

MONTANA STATE 1 over Weber State. Who are they? Only two of the highest scoring teams in the nation. Weber State has averaged 41 points per game, Montana State 40. This was the hardest of them all to pick and in a final effort to reach a decision I resorted to the flip of a coin.

OTHER GAMES around the country: Utah 8 over Arizona, Dartmouth 4 over Harvard, Army 2 over Pittsburgh. Texas Christian 5 over Auburn, Baylor 1 over Texas A&M, Nebraska 8 over Colorado, North Carolina State 10 over Duke, Florida State 7 over Mississippi State, Florida 6 over Louisiana State, Georgia 21 over Kentucky, Washington State 6 over Idaho, Northwestern 4 over Iowa, Oklahoma State 11 over Kansas.

The rest: Miami 6 over Indiana, Michigan 14 over Minnesota, North Carolina 10 over Wake Forest, Ohio State 21 over Wisconsin, Penn State 5 over Wake Forest, Texas 8 over Rice, San Jose State 3 over Texas Western, SMU 11 over Texas Tech, Tennessee 14 over South Carolina, Wyoming 23 over Utah State, Arkansas 25 over Wichita State.

School Wins Award

The School of Architecture and Allied Arts has been awarded a traveling scholarship from the Portland Chapter of the American Institute of Interior Designers. The $250 scholarship is to be given to an upperdivision undergraduate student in interior design for the purpose of studying significant interior design in stores, public institutions, and design studios in the country.

Iowa String Quartet Appears in Concert

The Iowa String Quartet, internationally acclaimed chamber music ensemble, will appear in concert at 8 p.m. Saturday in the University Music Auditorium.

The concert is the second in the 1966-67 Little Concert Series sponsored by the Student Union Board. Admission is by season ticket or by individual ticket at the door. Prices of individual tickets are $2.50 for adults and $2 for students and University staff.

The ensemble was formed in 1958 at the University of Iowa. Since that time, the quartet has toured the United States and Canada several times from coast to coast. In May of this year they made their first overseas tour. They have now played in more than 11 different countries, where they won resounding acclaim. So flattering were the reviews and so numerous the requests for re-engagements that the second and third tours overseas were booked well into 1968 before the quartet had finished the first half of their 1966 European tour.

Members of the quartet, all accomplished musicians, are Allen Ohmes, violin; John Ferrell, violin; William Preucil, viola; and Charles Wendt, violoncello.

Ohmes, who received his master's degree from Eastman School of Music, was concertmaster and soloist with the U.S. Air Force Orchestra, appearing with them in concerts both in this country and abroad.

Ferrell and Preucil are also graduates of Eastman.

For their Saturday night concert at the University, the quartet will play chamber music compositions by Purcell, Bartok, and Debussy.

STARTS SUNDAY 3 Days Only

"IT DAZZLES!"
Director Richard Lester has up and done it again... with a camera that whizzes like a slapstick in the hands of an old burlesque clown, he whips through this neo-Keystone business, flashing sight gags and fast throw-away line. A wild and candid spoof of masculine sex drives!
—Bosley Crowther, N.Y. Times

"A MARVEL!"
One of the maddest movies ever made! Dazzling... wildly imaginative... uninhibited fun. Whirled about like some berserk pinwheel. Rita Tushingham is irresistible! Richard Lester is one of the most exciting new directors around!
—William Peper, N.Y. World-Telegram & Sun

"WILD-SWINGING!"
Quite different, as a movie should be when the medium is used with all the flourish and brio available. Rita Tushingham's performance extraordinary!
—Archer Winsten, N.Y. Post

HIGHEST RATING ★★★★★
"I'M STILL LAUGHING!"
Infinitely superior. Do dig this way-out humor. I, too, dig it. Completely whacky, bold. Wonderful nonsense. Hilarious romp!
—Wanda Hale, N.Y. Daily News

A COMIC FANTASY... about sex... youth, innocence, ardor, love and Rita Tushingham! Lyric and funny!
