

Webfoot Booters Outscore Foes

Oregon's three soccer teams each scored wins during the weekend, one of the victories coming in Oregon Intercollegiate Soccer Association league play. The Mallards outscored Reed College 5-3 for the conference win and the Ducks team swamped Amsterdam 8-1 Sunday in an exhibition. The Oregon JV squad blanked Bishop Dagwell Hall 5-0 in other action.

Randy Swangard's two goals matched the Reed Griffins' score, and lone tallies by Lou Murray, Joe Macca and Longinus Iwu gave the Mallards their margin.

John Morgan led the Ducks with three goals against the Portland amateur team. John Cocking and Paul Wormleighton each added two, and Andrew Nkongho kicked one. The Ducks held a 7-0 edge before Amsterdam kicked its one goal past Oregon goalie Vernon Crew.

IM Schedule

Alpha Tau Omega maintained its intramural wrestling lead Thursday afternoon—despite the fact that the ATO's failed to get any points in that session.

However, Phi Delta Theta—which placed second in last year's tourney after leading it practically all the way—moved with Theta Chi into second position, and now both teams are four points off the pace.

Delta Upsilon is fourth with 30 points, Beta Theta Pi and Phi Gamma Delta fifth with 29, Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Sigma Chi seventh with 27, Kappa Sigma ninth with 25, and Tau Kappa Epsilon tenth with 22.

Three weights—the 152, 160, and 177 pound divisions—will conclude second round matches Monday, with third round bouts scheduled for Wednesday. All other weights will have their second round matches over with by Wednesday.

Wrestlers are reminded to watch the pairing brackets in the wrestling room, and the match schedules in the adjoining hall. Each competitor should be aware of his bad point standings.

Oregon Runners Upset Beavers

Oregon gave up the first two places as expected, but showed its depth elsewhere to upset previously unbeaten Oregon State 27-30 in a cross-country meet with the Beavers and the Oregon Track Club Saturday at Corvallis.

OSU's Tracy Smith, defending National AAU three and six mile champion, set an Avery Park course record by touring the six-mile course in 29:47.5. His brother, Terry, finished second in 30:56.0.

However, with sophomore Roscoe Divine leading the way, Oregon swept the next two places, and—with the help from the OTC—allowed only one other Beaver to finish in the top 11.

Duck finishers behind Divine included Bob Williams (4), Dave Wilborn (5), Hal Jackson (9), Cedric Wedimeire (10), and Damian Koch (11).
