

YMCA Seeks 'Big Brothers'

The YMCA Big Brother Project is looking for about 25 more men students to participate in the program in which men students work on a man-to-boy basis with boys who have never had a close relationship with their father.

The YMCA needs junior and senior men to spend six hours a week gaining the friendship of these children through activities such as bowling, hiking, and camping.

Men interested in the program may sign up at the YMCA office, room 318 of the Student Union. Further information may be obtained from Chuck Palmerlee, YMCA director, at ext. 1858, or from Don Cloutier, 343-4135, or Darryl Eng at 343-9645.

Dean Lindholm Cited By People-to-People

A commendation for participation in the President's People-to-People Program has been awarded Richard W. Lindholm, dean of the School of Business Administration.

The award, given by the Civic Committee, People-to-People, and the National League of Cities, is for meritorious achievement in furthering the cause of international understanding through dedicated participation in the Town Affiliation Program of the People-to-People Program.

Dean Lindholm was the first chairman of the Eugene-Chinju Sister City Affiliation.
