YOUNG DEMOCRATS will meet at 7 p.m. tonight in the EMU to discuss Friday's State YD convention, the state Democratic party convention in March, the YD Campaign Committee for McCarthy, Johnson, Morse, Duncan, Fadeley and George Van Hoomissen, and resolutions concerning the draft, the war in Vietnam and drugs.

ALPHA KAPPA PSI, professional business fraternity, will host an informal meeting for prospective pledges in the EMU at 7 p.m. tonight. All interested students majoring in business administration or economics are urged to attend.

THE FESTIVAL OF ARTS will feature a collection of experimental films to be shown at 8 each evening in 150 Science beginning tonight. The public is invited free of charge.

Future

"PACIFISM IN GERMANY, 1900-1914" will be discussed by Roger Chickering of Stanford University at 4 p.m. Friday in the EMU.

SELECTIONS from "Die Zauberflote" (the Magic Flute), an opera containing some of Mozart's music, will be sung by Mrs. Exine Bailey, soprano, at 4 p.m. Sunday in the School of Music recital hall.

The program is free of charge.

EXPERIMENTAL films of protest, satire, comedy, and "poetic imagery" will be shown in two different programs at 8 p.m. Friday and on Feb. 23 in 150 Science.

Included in the two "packages" of films which will be shown are a 10-minute film about a croquet match using the entire city of Toronto as a field; "Life and Film," a four-minute film of just people walking; "The Magician," an anti-war fantasy; and "Odds and Ends," a film satirizing a dissertation on poetry and jazz.

The Second City films are being shown as part of the Festival of Arts' emphasis on "The New Art."

Mostly General

SCHOLARSHIP competition sponsored by Delta Delta Delta Service Projects, will be held at the University starting today to March 1. All full time undergraduate women students are eligible. Academic record, contribution to campus life and financial need are considered.

The local winner of this scholarship is eligible for one of the $1,000 national Delta Delta Delta Service Projects awards. Applications are available from the Dean of Women and Cyndi Norris, the service projects' chairman of Delta Delta Delta.

A SUMMER program in Mexico for Spanish students has been made available by the Stickles Endowment. Scholars will enroll at the National University of Mexico, and will participate in local events. Applicants must have a bachelor's degree in Spanish and must meet University graduate school requirements. For further information contact David Curland, Department of Romance Languages.

C. EINAR HILLE, a visiting professor of mathematics at the University, has been named the recipient of the John Ericsson Medal for his outstanding contribution to the field of mathematics.

The medal is awarded every second year and alternately to a Swedish citizen and an American citizen of Swedish descent as a recognition of achievement in the technical and scientific fields.

Court Cool . . .

ably will be handed down in about a month.

Although the high court has never before issued a ruling on the 1965 law, two U.S. Courts of Appeals have issued conflicting decisions on it. In the O'Brien case, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the First Circuit said the law singles out "persons engaging in protests for special treatment," and that such legislation "strikes at the very core of what the First Amendment protects." However, in a case involving David Miller, who burned his draft card at a New York City street rally, the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit affirmed Miller's conviction and denied that draft card burning is symbolic speech protected by the First Amendment. The Supreme Court refused to review the Miller case.

O'Brien, who is now a student at Boston University, said he would not attempt to predict how the Supreme Court will decide the case. "But I know what they should do," he said.

Announcements for Campus Briefs must be turned in by 3 p.m. the day before publication. Because of space limitations no announcements will be run more than twice.

Angel flight interviews will be extended until next Monday. Petitions are available in 301 EMU. Call Carol Cinnamon at ext. 2288 on any questions.

All WRA Activity Chairmen please attend the Executive Council meeting at 6:15 tonight to defend your proposed budget.

There will be a Chess Club meeting at 6:30 tonight in the EMU.

Candidates for ASUO offices are responsible for checking the list in room 306 of the EMU to see if they have any violations. The Elections Court will meet from 12-2 today for those who do.
