Today

MAURICE ZEITLIN, political sociologist who has carried out extensive research in Cuba and Chile, will give a public colloquium on "Social Structure and Social Revolution in the Case of Cuba" at 3 p.m. today in 341 Commonwealth.

The Latin American Studies Committee and department of sociology are sponsoring the dialogue.

STUDENTS FOR KENNEDY invite anyone to question or debate national issues and Kennedy's policies with Ira Blalock at 12:30 p.m. today on the EMU Terrace.

Blalock, a Unitarian minister from Portland, is a critic of national policy and will be speaking at 11 a.m. at Lane Community College.

Future

"INDUSTRY'S Role in Pollution Abatement" will be discussed by John McKeown, general manager of Weyerhaeuser Company, Charles Porter, attorney, and Vern Adkison, Lane County Air Quality Control Officer, at 7 p.m. Tuesday in room 101 EMU. The discussion is sponsored by Alpha Kappa Psi, the University's professional business fraternity.

HONORS COLLEGE students planning on taking the Honors College comprehensive examinations must sign up for them by May 15 in the Honors College Office.

"CRISIS IN American Religion" will be discussed at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the weekly Browsing Room lecture in the Erb Memorial Union.

The lecturer will be Rabbi Richard Rubenstein, director of B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation and chaplain to Jewish students in Pittsburgh area colleges and universities.

Mostly General

SCHOLARSHIPS are being offered to those from minority communities by the U.S. Information Agency, for those who want to prepare themselves for careers in the agency. Applications may be made by recent college graduates or those who will graduate this spring with Bachelor degrees. Further information on the program may be obtained from the U.S. Information Agency Recruitment and Source Development Division, 1776 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W. Washington, D.C.

PERSONS interested in music for young children will have the opportunity to participate in two summer workshops at the University this year.

"Workshop: First Steps to Music" for two hours of graduate credit will provide a laboratory demonstration in which a group of children from six to eight years of age will be introduced to music through fancy, imagination, and play.

"Workshop: Use of Recorder and Instruments for Children," also for two hours of graduate credit, will focus on the use of simple instruments in the elementary grades.

APPLICATIONS to study at the Japan Study Center at Waseda University in Tokyo next year are due Wednesday. Students will leave for Tokyo about Sept. 1. Classes will be taught in English by staff members of the International Division of Waseda University.

For more information, contact William Naff, director of the center for Japanese studies in room 309 Friendly.
