Today

ROBERT PACKWOOD, Republican candidate for the U.S. Senate, will be interviewed live by Barry Katz on KWAX Controversy at 9 p.m. today. Students are invited to view the program live as space permits in the studio on third floor Villard Hall, and are requested to be there 15 minutes before broadcast time.

ROBERT PACKWOOD, candidate for the U.S. Senate, will give his views on "conservative issues" at the Sierra Club luncheon at noon today in the EMU.

"MAN IN NATURE" has been named the theme of the sixth annual Conference on Parks and Outdoor Recreation which is being held by the University through today at the Country Squire Motel just north of Eugene.

Numerous field trips and other outdoor activities are planned, including canoe trips on the Willamette River Parkway, a tour of Orchard Point; a golf tournament; tour of rhododendron and rose gardens and of Eugene's new community centers and swimming pool.

Future

A GROUP OF students will leave at 8 p.m. Wednesday to begin the Poor People's March on Salem. They will spend three days marching with a rally in Corvallis Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be spent at the State Fairgrounds and Capitol in Salem.

Persons participating in the march should bring tennis shoes, warm clothes and a blanket. Those interested in joining this march should contact Roy Bennett in room 313 EMU.

UNIVERSITY Panhellenic is sponsoring an Awards Dessert at 7 p.m. Thursday in the EMU Ballroom honoring women on campus who have been tapped for membership in honoraries, awarded scholarships, and recognized for their achievements in University work and service.

The dessert is the only program which recognizes the achievements and contributions of University women, both members of sororities and independents.

"A RAISIN IN THE SUN," a movie starting Sidney Potier, will be held at 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. Wednesday in 150 Science for the benefit of the Poor People's March in Salem. Admission is 25 cents.

HARVEY COX, theologian at Harvard University, will give an address at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the EMU Ballroom. The subject of the public lecture will be the relationship of the urban crisis to our international policies.

THE KAPPA CHAPTER of Pi Lambda Theta, women's educational honorary, will hold its spring initiation at 7 p.m. Wednesday in Gerlinger Hall.

RAFFLE TICKETS are being sold to support the Poor People's March in Salem Friday and Saturday. Prizes include dinner for two, theatre tickets, cash prizes and merchandise certificates. The price for each ticket is 25 cents. The drawing will be held at 4 p.m. Wednesday at the EMU Terrace.

ART EDUCATION curriculum meets at the University June 17-Aug. 9 designed to provide courses and other educational opportunities for undergraduate majors, graduate study towards the MA or MS degrees and advanced graduate study towards the Ph.D. and Ed.D. degrees.

Among the courses to be offered will be art in the elementary school, art criticism in art education, current problems and research in art education, creative behavior in art, and research methodology in art education.

Mostly General

THE POOR Peoples' March is putting out a request for transportation to Salem for the march May 24 and 25. Those who can provide transportation should meet in the EMU turn-around at 9:00 on both days. There is a signup sheet at the Poor Peoples' table on the EMU Terrace, or room 313 of the EMU, or interested persons may contact Robbi Hanna at ext. 1856 or 343-7588.

Backers Urge Humphrey Vote

PORTLAND — Supporters of Vice President Humphrey for President are urging Oregonians to cast their vote for the Johnson-Humphrey ticket as it will appear on the Democratic primary ballot May 28. State Sen. Ross Morgan, D-Gresham, made the call for support Tuesday while announcing creation of the "Oregon United Citizens for Humphrey Committee" at a noon meeting of the Willamette Democratic Society.

Morgan will act as co-chairman of the group with Elaine Burnham, vice chairman of the state Democratic Central Committee.
