

Rain Cancels UCLA Clash

A heavy Monday morning rain created a soggy Howe Field and caused cancellation of the afternoon baseball doubleheader pitting Oregon against UCLA's Bruins. The game will not be made up.

Unless precipitation once again intervenes, Southern California, which has clinched the first place spot in the Pacific-8, will meet the Ducks at Howe Field today. Larry Hayes, who carries a 2-1 record and a 1.74 earned run average, is scheduled to pitch for fifth place Oregon.

USC's strong roster is paced by outfielder Reid Braden, top hitter in the conference with a .422 average. Braden is .313 overall. Cal Meier (.387) and Chuck Ramshaw (.302) are also hitting well, and All-American second baseman Pat Harrison has walloped nine home runs.

Bob Vaughn (9-3, 1.33) is the probable pitcher for the Trojans.

WRA Schedules Intramural Final

The championship WRA game between Kappa Alpha Theta and Delta Gamma is scheduled today at 5 p.m. on Gerlinger Field.

Oregon's women's team will take on the faculty in a softball game at 4:30 p.m. next Monday. The Ducks dumped Maryhurst 20-3 last Friday.

In a track meet Saturday at Corvallis, Judy Armstrong placed first in the 880 with a run of 2:22.6. Cheryl Gould was second in the 440 at 70.6, and Margie Twitchell was runner-up in the 220 at 28.6. Marilyn Steinkopf took two fourth places, running the hurdles in 16.7 and high jumping 4-4. Pat Hoover took fourth in the discus at 88 feet.

CREW CIRCLES SEATTLE COURSE

Ducks closed initial season at Western Sprints

Second in JV Petite

Oarsmen Place

Oregon's crew team completed its premiere season Saturday by finishing second in junior varsity petite and eighth in over-all JV competition in the Western Intercollegiate Sprint Regatta at Seattle.

The Ducks failed to qualify for the finals in either of their two preliminary heats, but in the five-team JV petite competition for non-qualifiers, placed second to Cal State Long Beach. Oregon was timed in 6:27.3 to CSLB's 6:26.4. British Columbia and Oregon State, each victors over the Ducks earlier this year, were third and fourth, with Pacific Lutheran fifth.

Standifer Named Oregon Trainer

Larry Standifer, Oregon's assistant trainer since January, 1966, has been named head trainer to succeed Bob ("Two Gun") Officer.

"Two Gun" will be retiring July 1 of this year, completing 35 years of service to Duck athletic teams. He joined the staff in 1929 and has served every year except for 1946-50.

Standifer has also served as the physical therapist at the Student Health Service. He was Willamette University's trainer from 1960-66 after graduating from that school in 1955. He received a physical therapy certificate from USC in 1957.

IM Schedule

Important golf and tennis matches are both scheduled for today. Check intramural office for pairings.

Oregon Golfers Fourth in Pac-8

"We're not disappointed, we're very proud," golf coach Jack Adler said after his Ducks placed fourth in the Pacific-8 championships at Los Angeles last weekend.

"We placed exactly where we belonged. There were three teams better than us, and there was no way we were going to beat them."

Oregon, paced by Mike Davis, rebounded from a poor first day and finished with a 72-hole total of 1243—631 Friday and 612 on Saturday. Top four individual scores were added together to give the team score.

"That actually hurt us," Adler said. "For some teams that have only four good men, this is fine. But our strength all season has been in our depth."

Davis fired a 77-77-76-73 for a 303 total, good for ninth in individual standings. Other Oregon scores were Dave Leiken 82-77-74-78—311, Mike Currie 83-76-76-78—313, Scott Smith 77-82-80-77—316, Fred Haney 82-80-84-75—321, and Gay Davis 79-83-81-79—322.

Stanford was team champion with 1194 strokes, followed by Southern California 1202, UCLA 1213, Oregon 1243 and Oregon State 1245. Washington, California and Washington State were the last three finishers.

Individual titlist for the second straight year was USC's Kemp Richardson with a 290, including a first round 69.

Duck Netters Take Seventh

Oregon's tennis team defeated host Washington State 8-1 Saturday to place seventh in the Pacific-8 tennis championships at Pullman, Wash.

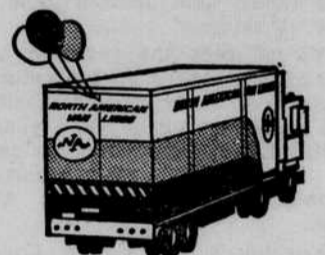

On Thursday coach Buzz Summers' Ducks turned in their best effort of the year before falling to strong California 6-3, but Friday the Webfoots lost their momentum and were dropped by Oregon State, a team they had defeated twice before by a 7-2 count.

USC topped UCLA 6-3 for the team championship, followed by Stanford, Cal, Washington, OSU, Oregon and WSU.

In the Duck-Bear meeting, Dale Morse rebounded from an earlier 6-0, 6-0 defeat at the hands of Cal's Gary Hippen - still to upset the Californian 6-4, 3-6, 6-2. Ron Zielinski won his match 13-11, 6-4, and Chuck Fritz topped Cal's second man 1-6, 9-7, 6-1. In March, Cal had dumped Oregon 9-0.

Only Gundars Tilmanis, still recovering from an ankle injury, and the doubles of Tilmanis and Zielinski could beat Oregon State.

Tilmanis, Fritz, Zielinski, Morse and Chuck Deardorff all won their singles matches over the Cougars with relative ease, as did the doubles teams of Tilmanis-Deardorff, Zielinski-Fritz and Morse-Barry Sterett.
