Campus Happenings

Today

THE OREGON Division of the American Cancer Society is sponsoring a program through the University Psychology Clin-ic to determine the best way to help married couples stop smoking.

The treatment program is based on the idea that married couples can work together to stop smoking. Five sessions will be held at the convenience of the participants. Electric shock or other aversive treatments will not be employed. Interested couples should call the clinic, ext. 1547, today or Friday.

THE YMCA BIG BROTHER program still faces the lack of volunteers in its fourth year on campus. The program works to provide disadvantaged children with someone who will act as a friend and a big brother. Vol-unteers for the Big Sister and Physically Handicapped Swim programs sponsored by the YMCA-YWCA are also needed. Anyone interested may sign up today and Friday at a table on the EMU terrace.

"FROM DEBUT TO DARK-NESS: Why We Grow Old" highlights this week's free public seminar in the Perspective on lic seminar in the Perspective on Aging series being presented this fall by the University's Center for Gerontology. Nor-man Sundberg will speak on this topic at 7:30 p.m. in the Celeste Campbell Senior Center, 155 High Street. TODAY is the last day for Honors College students to sign Honors College students to sign up for the fall term literature comprehensive exam. Anyone interested in signing up for a math or science exam may do so until Friday in the basement of Friendly.

INTRODUCTION OF NEW members, planning of activities for the coming year and elec-tion of new officers are on the agenda for a meeting sponsored by the Latin American Students tonight in the EMU. All old members, new Latin American students on campus, and interested American and foreign students are invited to attend.

A GUEST RECITAL by so prano Dorothy Bergquist will open the University fall concert season at 8 p.m. tonight. The public may attend the program free of charge in the

U. S. Central Intelligence Agency Employment

Unique professional opportunities are available for those seniors and graduate students completing work in:

Accounting

architectui Asian Studies *Business Administration Chemistry Economics Foreign Languages Geography Geology Graphic Arts History *Journalism Librarianship Mathematics *Microbiology *Physics Political Science *Psychology

*Public Administration Secretarial Science Clerical/Administrative:

BA in any field. Young wo-men for foreign assignments early in their career. Minimum typing speed: 45 wpm.

Graduate Students Only.

All assignments are in the Washington, D. C. area. Some require ington, D. C. area. Some require foreign travel. Preference is given in the case of male applicants to those who have fulfilled their military obligation. U. S. Citizenship is required. Applications may be obtained from the University Placement Service, 246 Susan Campbell Hall. These must be returned to the Placement Service turned to the Placement Service by October 18. All qualified ap-plicants will be interviewed at an early date. School of Music Recital Hall.

PETER FAUD will moderate the topic, "Is the SDS Subversive?", on the University ra-dio station KWAX from 8 to 9 p.m. tonight. Listener's comments are welcomed during the program at ext. 2418.

Future

EDOUARD MOROT-SIR will address University foreign language students and faculty at a public lecture at 4:30 p.m. Friday in Rm. 123 Science. His speech, "La Jeunesse Francaise et son Education," will be delivered in French. Morot-sir will be one of the principal will be one of the principal speakers at the Oregon State Modern Language Conference, Friday and Saturday at the Eugene Hotel.

THE ASIAN STUDIES Committee invites all interested stu-dents to attend the annual reception from 4 to 6 p.m. Sunday at the Museum of Art.

MORE THAN 1,000 high school students, journalism teachers and publication advisors from throughout Oregon are expected to attend the annual High School Press Conference on Friday at the University. Guest speaker William Ward will pose the question, "Who Needs an Underground Newspaper?" at one of the several lectures.

Petitions

THE DEADLINE to petition for the Student Administration Board is Friday. Petitions for the openings which include two graduate liberal arts positions, one graduate school position and one member at large opening are available outside Rm. 301

SOCIAL DIVISION committee petitions are available on the third floor of the EMU. Conference

Oct. 17-19

Next Week

THE CHURCH AND CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE

Father Guoppi, Father Berigan, Charles Spivey, William Stringfellow, and others speaking.

13th Ave. Laundromat

365 E. 13th WASH

DRY

Coin and Bill Changers Vending Machines Hair Dryers

Weekday Laundry and Ironing

Complete 24 Hour Laundry Service

GREAT SAVINGS ON MANY MORE ITEMS THAN SHOWN

Fall Sale

STARTING TOMORROW MORNING 9:30 A.M.

Were 3.00 & 4.00

TURTLE NECK T-SHIRTS $729

Choose from six popular colors in machine washable cotton knit. Sizes Small, Medium and Large

Regularly 9.00

FALL, DRESSY BLOUSES $799

Find a great selection of body shirts, sissy blouses in stripes, prints, solids. Sizes 28-36; and 5-15.

PLAIN PUMPS

In 8 Styles

$1290_$1690

Shoes by Deb, Town & Country, Amalfi, Miss Wonderful and others in 13 colors of calf and patent in 8 different styles.

ELEPHANT LEG PANTS

Regularly 17.00

The new look in pants, choose yours of plaid or check bonded wool in sizes 5-13. Don't miss having a pair of your own.

JUNIOR JUMPERS

Were 17.00-20.00

Suspender style, bib front, dirndl, pleat and novelty types, wide selection including plaids, prints, solids. Sizes 3 to 15

WOOL SWEATERS

Were 8.00-17.00

Pick from cardigans, pullovers and other styles, many colors; of wool blends. Sizes 36 to 40.

FALL RAINCOATS

Were 21.00-29.00

Specially purchased rain coats in a variety of fabrics and colors in the seasons most popular styles. Choose from sizes 6-18.