

Campus Happenings

Today

STUDENTS INTERESTED in the international business world and careers abroad may discuss prospects today with Mrs. Jean Bush of the American Institute for Foreign Trade in Arizona. Make appointments through the placement office. The program offered by AIFT is designed to train graduates of American colleges for service abroad with industry, government and service organizations.

"MAGNETIC BREAKDOWN in Metals" will be the topic of a colloquium to be held at 3:30 p.m. today in Rm. 16, Science I. The program will be presented by L. M. Falicov from the department of physics at the University of California, Berkeley.

ITALIAN SOCIOLOGIST Carlo Caldarola, who has specialized in the study of Japanese society, will speak at 3:30 p.m. today in the EMU under the sponsorship of the Asian Studies Committee.

Caldarola's topic will be "Non-Church Christianity in Japan."

MODERN LANGUAGE aptitude tests for Peace Corp Applicants will be given at 7:30 tonight in the EMU.

Group to Discuss University's Role

Charles Potter, president of the Eugene Taxpayers Association, Inc., will appear on the television show KWAX Controversy at 8 tonight to discuss the role of the University in the community at large.

Appearing with Potter will be his son Bill Potter, and ASUO President Dick Jones, Dean of Faculties Charles Duncan and Oregon Editor Dennis Nelson.

KWAX Controversy can be seen on closed circuit PL-3 or on commercial cable channel 10. The University FM radio station KWAX will carry the show also. Viewers and listeners alike are invited to phone in questions at 342-2411, ext. 2418.

Closed circuit sets are located in the dorm dining rooms, in the EMU, World Affairs Briefing Center and in the following classrooms: Commonwealth 137, 238, 336, 338, Villard 201, 205, 331, Education 151, 152, Deady 306 and Allen 314, 214, 218, according to Ron Sherriffs, operations manager, division of broadcasting services.

Sherriff was not sure all the classrooms would be available due to possible classes scheduled in the rooms at broadcast time.

(Advertisement)

Work in Europe

American Student Information Service has arranged jobs, tours & studying in Europe for over a decade. Choose from thousands of good paying jobs in 15 countries, study at a famous university, take a Grand Tour, transatlantic transportation, travel independently. All permits, etc. arranged thru this low cost & recommended program. On the spot help from ASIS offices while in Europe. For educational fun-filled & profitable experience of a lifetime send $ 2 for handbook (overseas handling, airmail reply & applications included) listing jobs, tours, study & crammed with other valuable info, to: Dept. M, ASIS, 22 ave. de la Liberte, Luxembourg City, Grand Duchy of Lux.

ROBERT MAYER, former first oboist with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, and chairman of the woodwind department at Northwestern University, will hold a clinic at 7 tonight in 129 Band Room of the School of Music.

"GROWING OLD Without Growing Cold" will be the subject of a lecture sponsored by the Center for Gerontology, at 7:30 tonight at the Celeste Campbell Senior Center, 155 High St. Wilma Donahue, specialist on aging from Michigan, and a panel of senior citizens from Lane county will discuss uses of leisure time.

A FACULTY RECITAL will be held at 8 tonight in the School of Music Recital Hall. Lawrence Maves, who conducts the Eugene Symphony Orchestra, will be featured on the violin, and William Woods will command the piano. The program, which is free, will feature three major works from classical, contemporary and romantic periods.

AN INTERNATIONAL Coffee Hour will take place at 7:30 tonight in Alpha Chi Omega, 850 E. 15th Ave. International students from different countries will show slides, dance and sing. The press release states purpose is to give insights into foreign cultures. Coffee and cookies will be served and all students are invited.

Future

A COLLOQUIUM panel presented by the psychology department will discuss "Group Intervention" Friday at 3:30 p.m. in 207 Chapman. Panel participants from the psychology and sociology departments will discuss topics on the various approaches to group intervention. The panel is open to the public.

THE UNIVERSITY library will host an open house of the Special Collections Division at 7:30 p.m. Friday. All interested persons are invited to attend. An original room which looks much as it did when the library was built 31 years ago, houses the Oregon collection. Martin Schmitt, curator of Special Collections, will speak on the different items which make up the special collections including manuscripts, incunabula, clay tablets, rare books, photographs, sheet music and prints.

DONALD GILES, marine extension agent with the Oregon State University Marine Science Center in Newport, will explore inter-tidal life in an estuary, during the monthly meeting of the Natural History Society Friday. The public is invited to attend the session which will be held at 8 p.m. in 150 Science.

THE NEWMAN Center will sponsor a foreign student reception at 8 p.m. Saturday at the center, 1850 Emerald St. The event will be open to the public.

A FREE DINNER snack and discussion of current events for curious students is held every Sunday at 6:30 p.m. at Westminster House, 1414 Kincaid St. Sessions are sponsored by the interdenominational Cooperative Christian Ministry.

Mostly General

AMERICAN STUDENT information service at the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, offers a work, study and travel program in Europe available to all students, teachers and young people between 16 and 34 years of age. The program offers opportunities to see new places, visit historical and cultural places and also thousands of paying jobs any time of the year.

ATTENTION SKIERS

OLYMPIC MEDALIST SHOWS FILM, GIVES LECTURE ON SKIS AT BERG'S NORDIC SKI SHOP

Pepi Stiegler, three-time Olympic medalist and director of the Jackson Hole Ski School, will be appearing personally today, Nov. 21st at 3:30 P.M. to 5:00 P.M. and 7:30-9:00 P.M. to give a series of lectures on ski design, construction and performance at 13th & Lawrence shop.

Stiegler won the gold medal in the 1964 Olympic Slalom at Innsbruck, Austria, and a bronze and silver medal in the Innsbruck and 1960 Squaw Valley Olympics. He was Austrian National Champion, National Team Coach and winner of most major international races in his fabulous career.

As a member of the Head Advisory Staff, he is also one of the leading ski testers around. Since 1965, he has been director of the Jackson Hole Ski School and runs his own summer racing camp at the Wyoming resort.

Stiegler will illustrate his lectures with the new Head Ski Company film "What Is A Ski?" and supply free autographed brochures on the subject "What Is A Ski?" The public is invited.

Thursday, Nov. 21st
3:30 - 5:00 P.M.
7:30 - 9:00 P.M.
13th & Lawrence

ON CAMPUS

END-OF-SEASON - FALL - HOLIDAY SHOE CLEARANCE!

ALL FLATS, reg. 12.00-16.00	Now 7⁹⁰
LITTLE HEELS, reg. 13.00-20.00	Now 9⁹⁰
DRESS SHOES, all heel heights, reg. 14.00-20.00	Now 12⁹⁰
DRESS SHOES, all heel heights, reg. 25.00-28.00	Now 19⁹⁰
BOOTS, ENTIRE STOCK, all lengths,	Now 25% OFF

Our Entire Stock of Fall Fashion Shoes has been included in this Grand Clearaway. High fashion colors, darks and neutrals, styles for every taste, famous names noted for fit and fashion.

