for the nominations shows Feliciano in contention for Best New Artist. The Cream, Gary Puckett and the Union Gap, Jeannine C. Riley, and O. C. Smith are also competing for the award.

"Feliciano!" was nominated for Album of the Year. It is in contention with "Bookends" by Simon and Garfunkle, "By the Time I Get to Phoenix" by Glen Campbell, "Magical Mystery Tour" by the Beatles, and Richard Harris' "A Tramp Shining."

Feliciano's rendition of The Doors' "Light My Fire" has made him a nominee for Best Vocal Male. His competitors are Bobby Goldsboro and his recording of "Honey," O. C. Smith for "Little Green Apples," MacArthur Park by Richard Harris and Glen Campbell for "Wichita Lineman."

Besides "Light My Fire," Feliciano made "Hi-heeled Sneakers" a hit in recent months.

His current release is "Hey Baby."

The RCA Victor recording artist was born in Larez, Puerto Rico. He has performed in England, Scandanavia, Canada, and the United States.

He has recorded songs in Italian, Spanish, Portuguese and English.

Sales tax goes before voters

SALEM (AP) — The Oregon House completed legislative action today on the 3 per cent sales tax that will be put on the special election ballot June 3.

The 32-28 vote for the measure on repassage came after the House had accepted all of the changes that the Senate made in the four-bill package.

In the House's first vote 10 days ago, the count also was 32-28.

Since then, Rep. Connie McCready, R-Portland, switched from no to yes and Rep. Morris Crothers, R-Salem, switched from yes to no.

The House had to vote again because of the Senate changes.

It voted 36-24 for the bill to put the sales tax money into property tax relief and 39-21 for the bill setting up the special election.

KWAX broadcasts Albee speech

Edward Albee's speech of Feb. 13 will be rebroadcast over KWAX-FM (91.1) tonight beginning at 6 p.m. Numerous requests for rebroadcast of the noted playwright's speech poured into KWAX after it was aired Monday evening, according to station manager Don Godfrey.

Albee spoke on the condition of the American theater today. "The condition of the theater is a mirror, one of the most accurate mirrors you'll ever find, of the health of a society."
