

Campus happenings

Today

"WE ARE All Murderers" will be shown at 7 and 9 tonight in 180 Prince Lucien Campbell by the Graduate History Club. Andre Cayatte's film, an indictment of capital punishment and societies that practice it, was called "one of the most powerful pictures of the post-war world" by the New York Post. Admission is 50 cents.

THE OREGON Council on Family Relations will hold its annual meeting at the University today and Saturday. The University Home Economics Department is hosting the session. Featured speaker will be C. J. Skidmore of Utah State University who will speak at a dinner meeting and head a panel on family life education.

THE SECOND Sapporo summer session begins June 15 and run through Aug. 31. Six weeks of the summer program will be held in Sapporo, Japan, and the rest in southern Japan. Robert Hodge, director of the program will begin interviewing interested students at 1 p.m. today in the EMU.

THE UNIVERSITY Consort will present a Medieval and 20th century music program at 8 p.m. today in the School of Music recital hall. An original composition by the group's director, Harold Owen, will be performed. Consort members perform vocally as well as on instruments such as the recorder, handbells and other percussion.

"THE DEVELOPMENT of Alkaline Phosphatase in Mouse Duodenum" will be the seminar topic of the biology seminar at 4:30 p.m. today in 16 Sci. The speech will be given by Marilyn Eizler.

GORDON GOLES, of the University Volcanology Center will address the Eugene Historical Society at 8 p.m. today in 150 Science. He will address the public meeting on "Ancient Man in North America: Valsequillo, Tephra - Chronology." Tephra chronology is ash-dating.

Future

AN INFORMATIONAL briefing session concerning the newly proposed Graduate Student Employees Union will be held at 11:30 a.m. Monday in the conference room of the Graduate Student Center on the ground floor of Chapman Hall. All interested persons are encouraged to attend.

NIKOYO NAKAYA, pianist from New York City, will be presented in a piano recital at 8 p.m. Saturday in the Recital Hall by the Nu Chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, an international professional music sorority.

Miss Nakaya has appeared in concert in Tokyo, Chiba, Osaka, and Mito, Japan as prize winner in the 1962-63 31st All-Japan Mainichi Music Competition. Tickets are available at the School of Music office, $1.50 adults, $1 students.

"A CLASSICIST look at Byzantine Churches" is the topic of a lecture by Patricia Lawrence, professor of art history, at 8 p.m. Sunday in 132 Lawrence. The Art History Club is sponsoring her talk.

IRANIAN STUDENT Association will hold a public meeting Sunday in the EMU. The agenda will include talks by Jerry Barlow and Mike Hill of the Black Student Union, and Paul Gratz and Charles Armbrury of the Draft Information Center.

THE GREEKS IN India will be the subject of a public lecture by Thomas Ballinger, professor of art in the department of art education, at 3 p.m. Sunday in the Museum of Art. Slides and artifacts will be used and a reception will follow. The program is one of a series sponsored by the Friends of the Museum.

TRINE MIME band will perform at 9-12 p.m. Saturday at the Wesley Center, 1236 Kincaid. Donations will be accepted.

KARATE CLUB will hold a club meeting Saturday at 2 p.m. in the East Gym. All interested persons are invited to attend.

Mostly general

"REVOLUTION," with a focus on revolution in underdeveloped countries and student revolutions, will be the theme of the fifth annual Northwest Conference of History Students. The event is scheduled for April 25 through 27 at Simon Fraser University in Burnaby, Canada.

A SIX-DAY field trip to some of Oregon's most outstanding natural wonders is being offered by the University geology department. The June 16-21 workshop is intended primarily for upper division and post-graduate students, but is open to anyone who is eligible to enroll in summer session.

BULLETINS FOR the 1969 Summer Session will be available March 1 and will contain a new Intent-to-Enroll notice which must be filed with the Registrar's Office prior to actual registration. Bulletins may be picked up at the Registrar's Office or the Summer Session Office.

A HANDICRAFTS of India exhibit, through the courtesy of Charles Schleicher is including silks, brasses, carvings and jewelry, is on display from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. daily until Feb. 28 in the home economics department of Chapman Hall.

AN ART exhibit of many media done by Eugene's junior and senior high school teachers is on display in the Henry Korn Gallery until March 1.

CAMPUS CHRISTIAN Ministry will sponsor a spring vacation work project in the Bay area designed to acquaint participants with the problems at San Francisco State and the more general social problems of a large metropolitan area. For further information, students should contact Mike Schauer-mann at ext. 350 or Martin Soudry at 345-1852.

THE STUDENT Fulbright Program for graduate study in 1969-70 in Japan was reinstated. Eight grants are available — four are regular grants for graduate study and four are teaching assistantships in English. Two of the regular grants are for advanced degree candidates in Japanese studies, one is in the teaching of Japanese as a foreign language, and one is open to students in any field of the humanities or social sciences. In addition, one grant is available for study in Vietnam. The deadline for applying is Feb. 28. Further information and application forms may be obtained in 201 Emerald.

PRE-NURSING students interested in applying to the School of Nursing, June 1969 Class, please contact Mrs. Guhli Olson, 161 Susan Campbell at Ext. 1391 regarding application and interview.

THE NATIONAL Poetry Press is now holding its college student's poetry anthology spring competition. Closing date for the submission of manuscripts by college students is April 10. Any student attending either a junior or senior college is eligible to submit his verse. Each poem must be typed or printed on a separate sheet and must bear the name and home address of the student and the college address as well.

Manuscripts should be sent to the Office of the Press, National Poetry Press, 3210 Selby

Ave., Los Angeles, Calif. 90034.

THE ANNUAL Delta Delta Delta Service Projects Scholarship competition will be held until March 1. All full-time undergraduate women students are eligible. Applicants should be well-qualified students, showing promise of valuable service in their chosen field and future communities. Academic record, contribution to campus life, and financial need are points which will be considered.

Local Tri Deltas will grant one award. All local winners in colleges where there are Tri Delta chapters are automatically eligible for one of the $1,000 awards to be made by the Sorority's National Service Projects Fund. Application forms are available from the Dean of Women. Completed applications must reach the Service Projects Chairman of Tri Delta or the Dean of Women by March 1.

MGM presents
the John Frankenheimer-Edward Lewis Production of the fixer
...based on the Pulitzer Prize-winning novel by
Bernard Malamud.

Show time 8 p.m.

MAYFLOWER

ELEVENTH AT ALDER.

345-1022

Dance to the STONED ILLUSION

OF PORTLAND

TONIGHT

8 until 12 p.m. EMU BALLROOM

75c

by ASUO Social Division

Yes, you'll be proud to say, "It Came from Carl Greve"

if she'd settle for this...
think how she'll love her
Art Carved®
DREAM DIAMOND RING

Granted, it's the sentiment, the thought, the love that comes first. But nothing stands a symbol more beautifully than a Art Carved diamond ring.

215.00 300.00 250.00

CARL GREVE
Jeweler
PORTLAND-EUGENE
"Incorporated"

Take a Year to Pay
No Interest!
No Carrying Charge!

PORTLAND • EUGENE
731 S.W. Morrison • 233-7121 • 51 W. Broadway • 342-5597

We'll Check Your Car
And give a written diagnosis and estimate
WITH NO OBLIGATION
We Welcome Problem Jobs
Loan Cars and BankAmericard

Thrifty Auto Repair

400 Block Coburg Road
344-2219 Eves. 343-5997