

Briefs

Announcements for Campus Briefs must be turned in by 3 p.m. the day before publication. Because of space limitations no announcements will be run more than twice.

Meetings

The campus Vietnam Moratorium Committee will hold a general meeting open to all interested persons at 10 a.m. Saturday in 180 PLC. Plans for December activities will be discussed.

Millrace volunteers: second meeting at 7:30 tonight in the EMU. Plans for this weekend's cleanup project on the Millrace will be made, and the overall plan for Millrace maintenance will be finalized before presentation to authorities.

Psychology majors: a proposal to reduce the major requirements will be considered at an open staff meeting at 3:30 today in 368 Condon. Please come and show your concern.

There will be an informal IEC staff meeting at 9 p.m. Saturday, at Ruth's house, 1443 Moss.

SDS will caucus at 9 Saturday morning in the EMU. This will precede the Moratorium meeting.

A general meeting of Nature's Conspiracy will be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the EMU Ballroom. All interested persons are encouraged to attend.

Theta Sigma Phi will meet at 7:30 Monday night in Eric Allen Room, Allen Hall.

Speakers

President Robert Clark will speak at 12:30 this afternoon at the Institute of Religion of the Church of Christ of the Latter-Day Saints, 768 East 16th Ave. The topic will be "The Role of Religious Organizations on Campus."

Films, Concerts

The Slavic Club and the department of Russian will sponsor an unusual film about a Polish draft dodger and his view of alienated youth in "beat" Warsaw society, at 7 and 9:15 tonight in 180 PLC. Admission is $1. There will also be a Czech short subject.

"Tonio Kroger" will be presented by the German Film Series at 7 and 9 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 22 in 150 Science. The film will have German dialogue with English subtitles. Admission is 75 cents.

Soprano Exine Anderson Bailey and harpist Doris Helen Calkins will be featured in a faculty recital at 4 p.m. Sunday in the School of Music. It is open to the public at no charge.

"Mutiny on the Bounty" will be presented by the Political Science Film Festival at 4:30, 7 and 9:15 tonight in 150 Science. Episode #9 of "King of the Rocket Men" will also be shown. Admission will be charged. Children under 12 admitted free with paying adult.

"Katz and Maus," from the Gunter Grass novel of a youth maturing in Nazi Germany, plus a D'Avino animation and an O'Neill optical abstraction will be shown at 7 and 9:15 p.m. Sunday in the University Theater, presented by the Film Society. Memberships are still available.

The University School of Music will present Victor Steinhardt, pianist, at a faculty recital at 8 p.m. Saturday, in the School of Music Recital Hall. It is open to the public at no charge.

Miscellaneous

The 23rd Happening, sponsored by CMM Sunday, will be at 1236 Kincaid, 1414 Kincaid, and 1850 Emerald.

Drakes and Decoys: The function prior to Saturday's game will start at 10 a.m. at "The Skool," 1000 Bethal Drive. Information relating to the post-game function will be given. For further information call Greg Houser, 344-9404, or George Neilson, ext. 1384.

The German Club invites members and friends to hike to Clark Creek Butte Sunday. Meeting place and time: 9:45 a.m. behind Friendly Hall. Free marshmallow roast. A hike to French Pete Creek is scheduled for Sunday, Nov. 30. See sign-up sheet at 203 Friendly (German department).

Les Planches du Pacifique, a theatrical group from Portland State University, will present "Jeux" (Games), a two-act play in French, at 3 and 8 p.m. Saturday in the Arena Theatre, Villard Hall.

Tickets for the play, which is by former University student Penny Hall, are $1 for students and $1.50 for adults. The play is sponsored by the French Club.

Interested in working on a tutorial program for foreign students with English problems? Pick up applications at the International Education Center, 318 EMU, ext. 1834.

Bands are desperately needed, on a volunteer basis, to play for mentally retarded youngsters the third Friday of each month. Contact Laurale Neal at the Eugene Parks and Recreation office, 342-5221.

SDS will sponsor a dance with the Permanent Brain Damage and Indecent Exposure, from 8-12 tonight in the EMU Ballroom. Admission is 75 cents. The public is invited.

Foreign students who would like free tickets for the Portland-Phoenix ice hockey game in the Portland Coliseum Sunday night, may obtain them by contacting Mrs. Litchman in the Foreign Student Office.
