FOR SALE: OUR ENVIRONMENT. Will technology and "progress" make ALASKA another ecological graveyard? Lewis Lapham reports on Alaska's struggle between its conscience and $900 million worth of oil leases. Also—Marshall Frady on HILTON HEAD, South Carolina. A "test case" that proves people can and will unite to fight against "growth-for-growth's-sake" if the price is pollution. And that one valuable by-product of the battle is a new understanding among the young and old, black and white, rich and poor—now joined for the common cause.
