

Packwood to speak at University today

Senator Robert Packwood (R-Ore.) will speak today at 3 p.m. in the EMU Ballroom. The title of his address is "Pertinent Issues of the 91st Congress."

The ASUO is sponsoring the talk, which will be followed by a question and answer period. The event is open to the public with no admission charge.

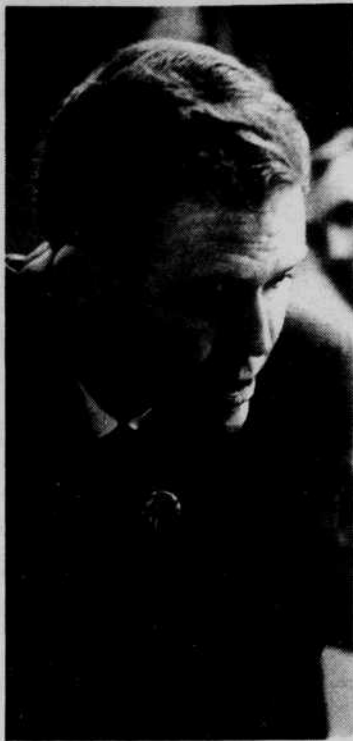

Packwood is speaking at various places in Lane County today, beginning with an address at 8:45 at Cottage Grove High School. At noon he will address a meeting of the Eugene Board of Realtors, and will be at the Forum Room at Lane Community College at 1:45.

After his University address tonight, Packwood will be guest of honor at an informal "town meeting" at the Thunderbird Motel. Both the LCC talk and the town meeting are also open to the public.

Packwood was the youngest member of the 91st Congress. He is a member of the Banking and Currency and Public Works Committees. He has been an outspoken proponent of birth control and introduced legislation which would limit to two the number of children which could be declared as income tax exemptions, proposed as a law beginning in 1973.

Before Packwood was elected Senator in 1968, when he defeated veteran Sen. Wayne Morse, he served for three terms in the Oregon State Legislature.

The Senator's wife, Georgie, is accompanying him on his speaking tour today.

Bob Packwood

Blues singer to join Neil Young in concert

Singer and guitarist Neil Young's concert will have a support act in John Hammond, a singer of urban and rural blues.

Both singers play guitar and are backed by electric piano, bass, and drums.

Known for his high-pitched voice, Young has been a member of the now defunct Buffalo Springfield and a sometime performer with Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young (CSNY). Before, after and inbetween his group efforts, he recorded three albums on his own, his most recent effort being "After the Gold Rush."

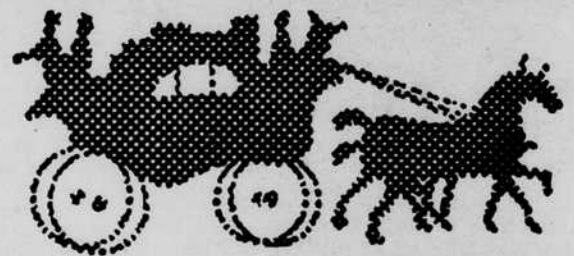

He authored the songs "Helpless," "Country Girl," and "Down by the River," some of which were performed when CSNY came to Portland early last summer.

Tickets for the 8 p.m. concert in McArthur Court are on sale at $2 to $4. Sponsors of the event are the Associated Students of the University of Oregon.

New PS 202 section opened

A new section of PS 202 American Government will be taught at 11:30 a.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays beginning today according to the Political Science Office. All students who were unable to register for the class due to lack of space are invited to sign up in 907 PLC. The class will meet in 331 CMM and will be taught by Jerry Medler. Students may attend class tomorrow without having first registered for it.

Introducing an unbelievable new product: Student-Railpass.

(Would you believe two whole months of unlimited rail travel throughout thirteen European countries* for a modest $125?)

Our brand-new Student-Railpass gives you all that Second Class rail travel on the over 100,000 mile railroad systems of Austria, Belgium, Denmark, France, Germany, Holland, Italy, Luxembourg, Norway, Portugal, Spain, Sweden and Switzerland. You'll discover that there's very little second class about Second Class. You can sleep in a Couchette for only $4.50 a night, and eat in inexpensive cafeteria-type Dining Cars.

If you haven't got two months, or you prefer the luxury of First Class, there's our regular Eurailpass. The three week Eurailpass costs $110, one month $140, two months $200, three months $230. But remember—you can't get Student-Railpass or Eurailpass in Europe. You must buy one before you leave, so see your Travel Agent. Meanwhile, send in the coupon below for your free Student-Railpass or Eurailpass folder.
