Dellenback to speak here

Fourth district U.S. Representative John Dellenback will be on campus at noon today, speaking at the Community Service and Public Affairs monthly colloquium in the EMU Ballroom.

Following a weekend meeting in Portland with Congresswoman Edith Green, D-Ore., and Oregon educators, Dellenback will tour Jackson and Josephine counties.

He returns to Eugene next Tuesday for a morning tour of the Eugene Hearing & Speech Center and a noon speech to the Eugene Rotary Club.

still remain open this term. Two of the openings were created by previous vacancies last term, and the third was created this term by the resignation of Steve Neal. Any person wishing to run for one of the board seats can obtain petitions in room 301 of the EMU.

Announcing her resignation, Miss Streukens explained that the chairmanship would "be just too much for me to handle this term." She said, however, she would remain as a SAB board member.

In other business, Dan Perke of the Christian World Liberation Front obtained the board's approval for a folk-rock concert to be held in the EMU Ballroom Saturday, January 16. The concert will feature two local groups and one from Los Angeles.
