Oregon golfer Dave Glenz sends his tee shot on the Eugene Country Club's 16th hole down the middle of the fairway in action at the Pacific-8 Championships Tuesday. Glenz scored 70 in each of the final 18-hole rounds, and finished with a 72-hold total of 295, third place individually. Southern Cal won team honors, with Oregon second.

Oregon State's Scott Massingill rolled in a seven-foot par putt on the final hole Tuesday to edge Oregon's Doug Roxburgh for individual honors in the Pacific-8 Conference Golf Championships at the Eugene Country Club.

A few minutes earlier, Southern California clinched the team title with a magnificent, come-from-behind second day effort. The Trojans finished with a four-man, 72-hold total of 1191.

Oregon placed second for the second straight year, at 1197, while first-day leaders Stanford faltered to a third-place 1205 total.

Massingill had a 72-hold total of 292, one stroke better than Roxburgh.

Massingill's medal-winning putt on the par four ninth hole came shortly after poor tee and iron shots had put his title hopes in serious jeopardy.

Massingill and Roxburgh, who were playing in the final threesome of the day, were tied as they moved to the final fairway. Massingill's tee shot hooked behind a tree, and his ensuing iron shot carried into some sawdust about 50 feet from the last green.

But the OSU golfer chipped to within seven feet of the hole with a spectacular shot, and Roxburgh's chip rolled some 25 feet beyond the pin. Roxburgh's ensuing putt was short, Massingill's was good, and the individual battle was over.

Southern Cal was in fourth place after Monday's opening 36 holes. The Trojans were 11 strokes behind Stanford, six behind the Ducks, who had a 603 total.

But an outstanding team effort, paced by Alan Tapie's 70, carried the Trojans into a two-stroke lead after 54 holes. Gary Sanders fired a 72, and three other USC divot men had 74s.

Incredibly, the Trojans shot one stroke better on the last 18. Tapie had a 71, and other USC golfers turned in 72, 73, 74, 74.

Oregon, meanwhile, was playing well, but not good enough. Dave Glenz recovered from a disastrous first round 82, following a second round 73 with a 70-70, tying him for third place individually at 295. Craig Griswold, the 1970 co-medalist, came in with a 74-76 for a 298 total.

IM track and field eliminations slated

By WES STINSON
Of the Emerald

The annual three day intramural track and field championships unfold with field event eliminations at 4 p.m. Thursday and track eliminations at 4 p.m. Friday at Hayward field.

Finals will be held at 4 p.m. Wednesday, May 26.

Pre-meet interest is running high this year and defending champion Sigma Phi Epsilon will be hard pressed to repeat. Last year the SPE's nipped ATO 59-58 with the outcome not decided until the final event.

Events this year include the shot, triple jump, high jump and long jump for field event men. Track men will vie in the 75 yard dash, 440 yard run, one mile run, 70 yard 39" hurdles and the 4 x 75 yard shuttle relay.

An open three mile run is to be contested again this year (non-scoring for IM points) and will be run as a final on Friday.

A man may enter only three events and all entries will be accepted at the Hayward field track prior to 4 p.m. A team may enter three men in an event. For team entry points (35) four contestants must enter the meet.

Scoring will be on a 10-8-6-4-2-1 basis.

No track shoes with spikes may be worn in the meet.

Close to 200 participated last year. Previous college letter winners and those currently out for track are ineligible.

The highlight of last year's spikefest was the mile run. "With 26 runners in the race it was by far the largest field in any event and the largest in recent IM history," reported IM coordinator John Barchardt.

The race was won by 31 year old Walt Schaefer of the Soc Jox with a time of 4:34.4. Schaefer will be back to defend his title.

In tennis, The People, Legal Eagles and Sigma Nu have advanced to the semi-final round.
