

Bellisimo predicts another OCBL title

By BRIAN TEN EYCK
Of the Emerald

"A star is one who can roll the ball the same under all conditions; in practice, in a tournament, on TV, anywhere."

Using this theory coach Lou Bellissimo has built a long string of good bowling teams and even some great ones. Did you know the all time high five-man team average in national collegiate bowling was set by Lou's 1964 Ducks as they piled up an amazing 1042 pin average, or that one of the few to come close to the four figure level was another Oregon team under, guess who, when they knocked down an average 995 pieces of wood per game.

While last year's team was not quite so impressive they did manage to win the Oregon Collegiate Bowling League championship with a 21-3 record and then go on to take the Region XIV crown over all the other schools in the Northwest.

This year the OCBL has been expanded to eight teams as Portland Community College, Willamette, Lewis and Clark and Pacific University join Oregon State, Portland State, Oregon College of Education and the Ducks.

Tackling this schedule will be two of last year's top four, Bill

Fornas and Jim Peterson and possibly a third, Tom Marrow who has one more year of eligibility but has not returned to school this year.

Looking over his personnel, Lou predicts a repeat on last year's OCBL victory. He entertains high hopes that when the national championships are held in Long Beach, Calif., this year, there will be Oregon bowlers on the approaches. As for the girls team, he will be taking over for the first time this year. A small turnout for the trials and the lack of returning bowlers will make winning a bit more difficult.

All three Duck teams will be bowling throughout the fall and winter, using identical schedules for the most part. Home games will be on the Emerald Lanes.

Band needs more members

Those high-stepping heroes of the gridiron, the Fighting Duck Marching Band, is in need of even more heroes to march at the Oct. 16 game against Washington.

Tuesday, the band had 70 members but band director Bernette Dillon was hopeful of appearing at the contest with an 88 to 110 piece group.

The band, which is making a comeback after a one year absence, is open to all students and offers some benefits. Members receive one credit and gain free entrance to the Washington game, the Oct. 23 San Jose State game, the Nov. 13 California game and the Nov. 20 Oregon State game.

Interested students should be at the music school band room at 3:15 today or contact Dillon at ext. 3782.

Birds take AL flag; Bucs edge Giants

From AP Report

The Baltimore Orioles claimed their third consecutive American League championship Tuesday with a 5-3 win over Oakland.

The victory gave Baltimore a three-game sweep in the best-of-5 series after capturing the opening two games, 5-3, and 5-1.

It was Baltimore's ninth consecutive playoff triumph over three seasons.

They now face the National League champion Saturday in the World Series.

The Pittsburgh Pirates moved a step closer to taking that crown Tuesday by nipping the San Francisco Giants, 2-1, on home runs by Bob Robertson and Richie Hebner. The Bucs now hold a 2-1 lead in their best-of-five series. San Francisco and the Pirates will meet today in Pittsburgh.

Brooks Robinson's bases-loaded single in the fifth sent the Orioles to a 3-1 edge. The Orioles had scored in the opening inning off loser Diego Segui and added two more runs in the seventh, keyed by Frank Robinson's run-scoring double.

The A's got all their runs off winner Jim Palmer on homers. Reggie Jackson hit a pair and Sal Bando one.

Hebner ripped an eighth inning home run, snapping a tie and sending Pittsburgh to a 2-1 triumph over San Francisco in the National League playoff series.

Hebner's blast made a winner of surprise starter Bob Johnson, who replaced Nelson Briles. Briles had aggravated a right thigh injury. The blow made a loser of Juan Marichal, who allowed only four hits.

Johnson scattered five hits in eight innings, walking two and striking out seven. The only run scored off the right-hander came in the sixth on Hebner's throwing error. Reliever Dave Giusti stopped the Giants in order in the ninth.

Ken Henderson opened the Giants' sixth with a single and scored when Hebner threw wildly past first on Tito Fuentes' sacrifice bunt.

The Pirates' first run came in the second inning on a homer by Bob Robertson, who had blasted three in Pittsburgh's 9-4 victory Sunday. The Giants won the opener Saturday, 5-4.
