Class to be offered for travelers

A class in "European Art and the Student Traveler" will be offered winter term at the University, sponsored by the International Education Center (IEC).

There is room for 60 students in each of the three sections, according to IEC director Bob Witham.

"The prerequisites are instructor's consent, and either a sincere interest in the educational aspects of traveling in Europe or an upcoming trip to Europe," Witham explained. "The classes will also explore social, political, and geographical considerations," he said. "Their purpose is to give the student traveler a basis for judging his experience in Europe."

Interested students can pre-register for the classes Monday, Tuesday, and Friday of finals week in the EMU, room to be posted. Instructors will be available for consent and registration from 9-12 a.m. and 2-4 p.m. Monday, 9-10:30 a.m. and 2-4 p.m. Tuesday, and 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Friday.

Shakespeare play sets last performances

The final four performances of the University Theatre production of "A Cry of Players" will be presented at 8 p.m. tonight through Saturday evening in Villard Hall's Pocket Playhouse.

The small size of the theatre and the demand for tickets necessitate advance reservations in order to insure seating. Tickets, which cost $1.50, are available through the University Theatre Box Office every day from noon to 5 p.m., or by calling 686-4191.

Tax plan on tap for City Council

Lane County's proposed "piggy-back" income tax plan will be one of the topics discussed at a public meeting of the Eugene City Council at noon today at the Eugene Hotel.

County officials contend that with the 1½ per cent income tax suggested by the plan, and its provision that tax revenues be divided so that cities within the county receive 55 per cent of the money raised by the tax, the city of Eugene would receive $2.3 million. The remaining 45 per cent of the revenue would go to the county.

Convicts arraigned on escape charges

Two convicts who had been participants in the Oregon State Penitentiary Project NewGate program at the University were arraigned in Lane County Circuit Court Monday on charges of escape.

Douglas Knapp and Garrette Wolfe were charged with illegally walking away from the program on Sept. 19. They were arrested by police and FBI agents in Grand Forks, N.D. on Oct. 6.

Educational funding to be discussed

"Funding for Higher Education" will be discussed tonight on KZEL-FM's weekly Art Pearl vs. the World radio show.

The program will feature John Wish of the University's School of Business, Greg Maitby of the School of Education, John Leahy, asst. Attorney General of the State Board of Higher Education, and Richard Inmann, House minority leader. Moderators will be Phil George and Art Pearl.

The show will be broadcast live at 7 p.m. from the Laurelwood Golf Course at 2700 Columbia. Interested persons are invited to attend. KZEL broadcasts in stereo at 96.1.

The Oregon Daily Emerald is published Monday through Friday during the school year, except during exam and vacation periods, and once weekly during summer session by the Emerald Board of Directors at the University of Oregon.

Second-class postage paid at Eugene Oregon, 97403.

Subscription rates:

(1.) University of Oregon student and faculty staff subscription rates are based on annual contracts between the Emerald and the ASUO and the Emerald and the University administration. The rate of these subscriptions is approximately $2.00 per year.

(11.) Special subscriptions for persons not included in category (1.) are available at a rate of $10 per year, $9.00 per academic year and $3.50 per term.
