Speed reading class open

The University's Reading and Study Skills Center still has a few openings in its Monday evening speed reading class. The class is designed to help people increased their reading speeds while maintaining, or improving comprehension.

Special attention is given to working with the reading material used by each student in his everyday life.

The class meets each Monday from 7 to 9:30 p.m. in 265 Condon through Winter Term. Fee is $15 for the general public, or $7.50 for members of the University faculty, staff or student body.

Prospective students may register or obtain more information by calling the Reading and Study Skills Center on the campus, 686-3226.

Teaching fellow receives award

Ronald Johnson, doctoral candidate in the University's Department of English, is the 1971-72 recipient of the Rudolf Ernst Graduate Fellowship.

Johnson is a graduate of Gonzaga University and received his Master of Arts degree from Colorado State University. He has been at the University of Oregon since 1969 and is a Graduate Teaching Fellow in English.

The Ernst award will enable Johnson to complete the work on his doctoral dissertation, which is a study of the satire of John Wilmot, Earl of Rochester.

The annual Fellowship was established in 1967 by Mrs. Alice Henson Ernst.

Demo Forum to feature McAlmond

Phil McAlmond, Democrat, the first announced candidate for the state treasurer's office currently held by Robert Straub, will speak to the Lane County Demo Forum at noon.

He will speak on his upcoming campaign and his idea of what the position entails.

Speaker to discuss forest use tonight

Jim Weaver, former congressional candidate, will speak before the Cottage Grove Kiwanis Club 6:30 p.m. tonight in Pep's Restaurant. His talk will deal with forest use and conservation.

Senator Fadeley to speak on cigarette tax

State Senator Edward Fadeley (D-Lane), will discuss the upcoming cigarette tax measure and Oregon's financial condition at a public meeting at 8 tonight in Harris Hall on the Lane County Court house grounds.

The meeting's sponsors, the Oregon Education Association and the Oregon State Employees Association, are advocating the passage of the tax measure on Jan. 18. The two organizations will make brief presentations concerning the need for approval of the cigarette tax measure from the standpoints of public education and the state government, then answer questions from the audience.

The Senior Citizen and Youth Coalition, which also supports the passage of the tax, will announce a drive to collect votes at the meeting.

Thefts, rapes reported in campus area

Police are investigating two thefts—one from the University's drama department and the other from a student's residence—and two rapes which occurred in the campus area.

The incidents reported to Eugene Police in the last four days include:

... The University theatre department was the victim of thieves early Wednesday morning when several tape recorders were stolen from a sound booth at the University Theater.

... Eugene police received report of the theft at 4:55 a.m. The investigating officer said the thieves entered through a trap door in the theater, using bolt cutters to get through the locks. The incident is under investigation.

... Two University students were the victims of burglars who took an estimated $1,125 worth of stereo speakers, amplifiers, and turntables. Also reported stolen from their residence at 960 E. 19th Ave. were three bottles of wine, about 110 record albums and a hunting knife. The theft took place while the students were on Christmas vacation. The thieves apparently entered the dwelling through an unlocked rear window and broke the door to the basement bedroom off its hinges.

... Eugene police Tuesday arrested Gerald T. Bowen 22, of 359 Seneca, Eugene on a charge of attempted rape.

Bowen was arrested after a Eugene police officer received a report that a woman had been attacked in the area of 14th and Hilyard Streets.

The suspect was later identified by the victim. Bowen was released from Eugene City-County Jail after bail was set at $2,005.

In a separate incident a woman was raped in her home early Wednesday morning in the area of 12th and High streets. Police are seeking a man described as a white male adult, between 20 and 30 years of age, approximately five foot, nine inches tall with long blond hair in connection with the incident.
