

Briefs

Meetings

The University Sailing Club will hold a general meeting at 8 p.m. tonight in the EMU—room to be posted. New officers will be elected. All members and interested people are encouraged to attend. A short slide presentation will be shown regarding the team's effort at the Douglas Cup.

There will be a Christian Science Testimony Meeting at 7 p.m. tonight in the Wesley Center. All welcome.

Also, Ms. Werdna Wyatt, Christian Science campus counselor has office hours 3-5 p.m. today in the EMU. All inquiries welcome.

Alpha Kappa Psi, professional Business and Economic Fraternity, will hold a business meeting at 6:30 p.m. tonight in Room 239 Commonwealth. All Business and Economic majors are invited to attend.

GSC will hold its first meeting for Winter Term at 11:30 a.m. today in the EMU. Room to be posted. The agenda will include Executive Board reorganization, the cigarette tax, a Library committee report, the University budget cuts, increases in laundry prices in married student housing, and ASUO incidental fee budget.

The University chapter of the Pacific Northwest Personnel Management Assn. will hold its first meeting of the Winter Quarter at 7 p.m. tonight in the EMU. All interested students in Personnel or in the Institute of Industrial Relations are invited to attend.

The University Objectivist Discussion Group will meet Sunday at 7 p.m. in the EMU.

There will be a meeting for all interested undergraduates and graduates with the style and substance committee of the Political Science Dep't to discuss the budget cut priorities.

The first organizational meeting of Pi Kappa Phi will be held at 7 p.m. tonight in the EMU.

Important Hawaii Club meeting 7 p.m. tonight in the EMU.

Phi Thetas, there will be a very important meeting at 4:30 p.m. today in the EMU to discuss the future of Phi Theta. If you cannot attend, please call Mrs. Nosler x3211.

There will be an organizational meeting for all girls interested in track and field at 4 p.m. today on the Gerlinger sunporch.

The Bayou Track Club will hold its first meeting at 8 p.m. tonight at 1414 Alder. Direct to Craig Nichols 686-5327.

There will be a meeting for all University Republicans at 7:30 p.m. tonight in the EMU. For information contact Rob Olson ext. 5346.

There will be an ASUO Senate Governing Committee meeting at 6 p.m. tonight 315 EMU.

There will be a meeting of the campus bicycle committee at 4 p.m. today in room 315, EMU, to discuss formation of a workshop to deal with establishing bike paths, routes and ramps. All interested students are urged to attend.

Speakers

Biochemist and Biophysicist Gordon Tomkins of the University of California Medical School in San Francisco will speak at the University at 4 Friday Afternoon in 123 Science on "Genetics Regulation in Mammalian Cells." A tea will be held at 3:30 p.m. Friday in 361 Science.

Speakers

Gracie Chalmers, Visiting Professor of Art Education, will speak on "Some Non-aesthetic Functions of the Visual Arts" at 4:30 Friday in 177 Lawrence.

Chalmers' speech will be the first of a weekly series of lectures to be offered winter term by faculty members of the School of Architecture and Allied Arts. All talks will be scheduled at 4:30 Friday afternoons in 177 Lawrence Hall.

Films

The 1971-72 International Film Festival will present a collection of ten prize winning short films from Yugoslavia at 7:30 p.m. Friday in 180 PLC. They are: "The Wall"; "The Fly"; "Boomerang"; "Diogenes, Perpaps"; "Little and Big"; "Tamer of Wild Horses"; "Tolerance"; "Curiosity"; "Dancing Songs"; and "La Peau De Chagrin." All films are in color and have English subtitles.

New Horizons Ventures will present the film "Fellini Satyricon" at 2, 5 and 8 p.m. Sunday in the EMU Ballroom. Admission is $1.

POTEMKIN, directed by Sergei Eisenstein, also, FUERA YANKI (newsreel) will be shown 7 and 9 p.m. tonight in 150 Sc.

Misc.

Unlimited teaching opportunities are available for teachers and administrators in any field and any level, kindergarten to university.

More than 1,000 institutions in over 115 countries offer teaching and administrative opportunities to American educators. For application information, please write to Friends of World Teaching, P.O. Box 980, Needles, Calif. 92363. Please specify three countries where you would like to teach, and enclose $5 to cover printing and clerical expenses.

The Big Brother Program has need for ten new volunteers. For details, come to the information meeting 7:30 p.m. tonight in the EMU or call 686-4431.

Auditions for the University Theatre production of Euripides' "The Trojan Woman" will be held at 7:30 p.m. tonight in the pocket Theatre, Villard Hall. Roles are available for eleven women, five men and one small boy. Prepared auditions are not necessary. "The Trojan Women," which Edith Hamilton has called "the greatest piece of anti-war literature there is in the world," exhibits and condemns the suffering and futility of war. The play will be presented March 2-4 and 8-11.

Students are needed to observe in the Municipal Court-Watching Project for one afternoon or morning next week. For more information, call Therese at 344-3830 or stop by the campus YWCA lounge, Gerlinger Hall.

MFA candidates Steve Arthur and Winthrop McCormack will read from their own work at 3:30 Friday in room 138, Education.

Something Extra!

From now until the end of the term you can buy one

DUCK DOPE COUPON BOOK ($3<sup>00</sup>)

and get one coupon for a

FREE CLASSIFIED AD

redeemable any time this term ($2<sup>40</sup> value).

Together!

available at the co-op and 301 allen hall

make it easy on yourself. . . . with

TINO'S FREE PIZZA DELIVERY

Some of our finest:

Canadian bacon & fresh tomatoes
Canadian bacon & pineapple
Italian sausage with mushrooms
Pepperoni, Canadian bacon & fresh tomatoes
Beef & green peppers

and many others

1491 Willamette St.

344-2453

TODAY

1¢ BANANA SPLIT SALE

Thursday

Jan. 13

Dairy Queen

Buy one at the regular price, get the second for

1¢

13 th & Hilyard

Dairy Queen

REJOICE PRODUCTIONS PRESENTS

LON CHANEY (The man of a thousand faces)

In

The original silent film versions

THE PHANTOM OF THE OPERA

and

THE HUNCHBACK OF NOTRE DAME

"These 1922 & 1925 classics are two of the most lavish productions ever made. Each cost over a million dollars to produce and created images never before shown on the silver screen."

--- Bella Lugosi, Sr.

Thursday, Jan. 13 180 PLC 1.00

4:30, 7:30, 9:15